Corning KC Council Hears Father Brennan

Corning — The Rev. Thomas F. Brennan, pastor of St. Mary Church, Corning, addressed Corning Council, Knights of Columbus at a Communion breakfast at the Baron Steuben Hotel. Approximately 100 members attended.

Father Brennan was introduced at the breakfast by James Q. Harty, program chairman, who recited the accomplishments of the priest since he came to Corning from Mount Morris in 1953 after 17 years as a teacher at St. Andrew Seminary in Rochester.

FATHER BRENNAN asked for religious reading and study during the Lenten season which begins Wednesday, Feb. 15.

"You can," he said, "be proud of the national activities of the Knights of Columbus, the order's explanations of faith and its college scholarships."

The priest said 57 young men of the diocese of Rochester have entered religious orders and are now on duty throughout the world.

Other speakers were Steuben County Dist. Atty. Domenick L. Gabrielli of Bath, who was accompanied by his father, Rocky; Charles Houston, deputy grand knight of the Corning Council; and Grand Knight Thomas E. Kelley of Painted Post.

non-Catholic girls, whom the agencies or parents desired to have the advantage of the training the institution could offer.

HOLY ANGELS HOME is registered with New York State Department of Social Welfare which makes regular inspections of the institution and its program and offers facilities of the area office to assist in problems and program.

Work of the Institution has been done quietly but efficiently with a minimum of publicity. It has provided a highly specialized service for the Church which cannot be duplicated in this area, the spokesman said.

At the time of this Silver Jubilee of dedication, the Sisters are hopeful that a grateful community will provide facilities for both their physical needs and religious exercises.

Painted Post Man Receives Commission

Corning — At ceremonies last Thursday, at the University of Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., Francis J. Reidy, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Reidy of 130 Platt St., Painted Post, was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry in the United States Army Reserve.

Reidy is one of 130 seniors graduating at mid-term. He will receive the degree of bachelor of science in commerce with the rest of his class at commencement exercises in June.

Reidy will go on active duty Oct. 1 at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. Until then he will be employed by Haskins & Sells, certified public accountants in New York City.

Corning Weddings

Colaccecchi — Carlton

Corning — Miss Shirley May Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith H. Carlton of 335 East High St., Painted Post, and James Colaccecchi Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Colaccecchi of 569 West High St., Painted Post, were married Jan. 14 at 9 a.m. in St. Vincent de Paul Church. The Rev. Joseph Guilfoil, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Shirley Stockdale of Monterey and Paul Flaspholer of Corning.

Following the ceremony a breakfast for 25 invited guests was held at the Baron Steuben Hotel.

The bride is a senior at Painted Post High School. Her husband was graduated there in 1955 and is employed by the Ingersold-Rand Company. They are making their home at 569 West High Street.

Engagements

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Shimonsky of 2 Ames Street, Addison, announce the engagement of their daughter Sonja Mae, to John J. McGuiness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McGuineas of 108 West William Street, Corning.

Miss Shimonsky is a graduate of Addison Central School and is now employed as a secretary by the Corning Glass Works.

Mr. McGuiness attended St. Vincent De Paul's School and Corning Northside High School. He served two years in the U.S. Army and is now employed by Corning Glass Works.

Wedding plans are incomplete.

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cantineri, 259 State Street, announce the engagement of his daughter, Miss Teresa Cantineri of Lock Haven, Pa., to H. David Locke, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Locke, also of Lock Haven.

The prospective bride is employed by A. C. Dickey Co., while her fiance is attending the Williamsport Technical Institute at Williamsport, Pa.

A late summer wedding is being planned.

Requiem Offered For Mrs. Kane

Corning — Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Patrick Church Monday for Mrs. Mary C. Kane of 311 Denison Pkwy., who died at her home Thursday, Jan. 26, 1956. Prayers were said at the late residence previous to the church services.

Burial took place in St. Mary Cemetery.

Mrs. Kane was born in Tioga, Pa., May 7, 1875, the daughter of Michael and Mary McCarthy Hickey. Her husband, Michael Keane, whom she married in Tioga on Oct. 29, 1902 died in Corning Nov. 21, 1921.

Mrs. Keane was a member of St. Patrick Parish and its Stella Maris Society as well as the Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Surviving are: one son, James at home; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Davis at home and Mrs. John McFall of the Imperial Club; one sister, Mrs. Thomas E. Hotchkiss, of Elmira; three grandchildren, Robert McFall and Mary Kay Davis, both of Corning, and John H. McFall of El Paso, Texas; three great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Confraternity Helpers' Work Covers Nine Divisions In Ithaca Parish

Ithaca—Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Helpers will attend their divisional meeting on Thursday, Feb. 9 in room 17, Immaculate Conception School from 7:45 to 9:30 p.m., according to a notice from the CCD headquarters.

A Mission Helper of the Sacred Heart and Mrs. Dorothy Wilson, chairman will continue to explain works and projects needed for Immaculate Conception Parish.

The Confraternity Helpers know how a piece of colored construction paper, a jar of paint, a second hand magazine or book can bring about the "reign of Christ," the announcement said.

CCD Helper activities are said traditional, unique and seasonal.

NINE DIVISIONS comprise the work of Helpers as follows:

CCD Records — kept up to date; "Sitter" Service — given while parents attend Mass, Confession, discussion club meetings, etc.; Salvage and Projects — collecting the necessaries for development of religious projects, supplying the Catechetical Centers with visual aids; Transportation — for Confraternity pupils and teachers and for bringing rural families to Mass; Distribution of Literature — collecting and delivering it to institutions, doctors' offices, also Instruction classes — preparing needed material ahead of time, checking attendance, listening to children's recitation of prayers, setting up class or club rooms, being a general time saver for the teacher; Office Service — mailing, telephoning, typing, making posters; Parish CCD Library — supplying and servicing it; Sacred Heart Club — supervise children's activities on the Thursday before the First Friday in Parish Hall.

The Helper, it is pointed out, is often a salesman, a courier, a hostess, a chauffeur, a chaperon, a lady of charity and may at times be all rolled into one.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT said that willingness to take responsibility, generosity, versatility and enthusiasm "are all graces and virtues that add greatly to the worth of any Helper. Versatility is not a God-given grace but is acquired by constant cultivation.

"Helpers get it by being willing to help in places when and where help is most needed. Zeal and ardor are but other terms for enthusiasm."

"The necessity and importance of this work of Helpers need not be emphasized. Let it be enough to say that the apostolate of the Confraternity with its many types of activity, framed by one motive: to restore all things in Christ, is as a huge stained glass window which glorifies God.

"If even a few small pieces are missing, the window is not as perfect and loses some of its beauty. Although the Helpers' work may seem to be of minor importance because simple, nevertheless, without it the Confraternity would lose some of its effectiveness, which is its beauty."

Coal is a portable climate.—Emerson.

Notre Dame News Notes

By GERALD BROWN

Mid-year exams were held at Notre Dame High School, Elmira last week. Over the week end everyone waited anxiously for report cards which didn't come until the middle of this week. Hope all are satisfied with their marks.

Congratulations to Chris Hee on his 100% in Trigonometry!

AT LAST FRIDAY night's basketball game, Candor walloped the Crusaders, 83 to 47. Although Jack Beck hit 22 points and Bob Crowley, 14, the rest of the team didn't give them their complete support. This latest defeat, the first to occur on the home court, places Notre Dame's record at 6 wins and 4 losses.

In the preliminary tilt, the Little Crusaders beat the Candor J.V.'s, 44 to 38. Hank Santulli was high for Notre Dame with 20 points.

NEWS NOTES

Senior play practice progressing . . . Senior Honor Students to be announced next week . . . Seniors anxious to hear their marks.

Geneva Youth Commission Names Father Nolan

Geneva — Geneva Youth Commission elected the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan as chairman at its organization meeting last week.

E. T. Emmons will serve as first vice-president and Mrs. Nell Bartlett as second vice-president. Mrs. Mary R. Hall will continue as secretary.

Stephen DeMeo, newly appointed member of the Commission, was present for the first time and was introduced.
