These days when so many youngsters do not have the experience of living with grand parents...

But when teen-agers devote three hours a week for 10 weeks to the actual care of elderly patients in these homes...

Our Marie was one of the lucky ones selected for such an endeavor. Every Wednesday night after school...

AFTER the first Wednesday there, she told us about it at dinner. Fine, we thought, just fine...

And how long would the enthusiasm last? Oh, she learned to make hospital corners on sheets...

"I can make a bed with a patient in it. Want to see?"

Ginny was a willing guinea pig for this one. "Lookie," Ginny said.

These teenagers may have taken time out for academic studies, resulting in lowered grades...

AT THE END of the training course there was a short but impressive graduation ceremony...

AMONG WOMEN Club Newsletters, Bulletins

By Mary Lennon Snyder

One of the most effective means of holding an organization together and of integrating each isolated member...

IN EVERY organization there is someone who by talent and temperament is interested in this type of work...

Once the mechanics of producing the bulletin have been met there remains the expense and labor of mailing to each member...

FROM TIME to time in this column I have commented on various excellent club bulletins of parochial organizations...

IN these we may read the bits of news which we can hardly expect our daily secular papers to print for us...

WHAT PARTICULARLY appealing to me was that it not only contained news of its own interests and activities...
