Teen-Age Mission Set For Geneva Youth

Geneva — A teen-age mission will be conducted in St. Francis Church, Geneva, from March 7 to 9 according to the Rev. Richard Nangle, principal of DeSales High School.

Father Nangle stated that the average adult mission is not geared to care for special needs of teenagers, while a young people's mission fills this important need. The missioner is able to treat the problems of young people and help solve those problems in the light of the teachings of Christ.

The Very Rev. John Kehoe, S.J., provincial of the Jesuit Fathers at Fordham University, has promised to send an outstanding missioner to conduct the mission in Geneva, one who knows the problems of youth and can speak their language.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis Church, said today that although the mission is primarily for Catholic teenagers of Geneva, nevertheless all the young people of the city will be welcome to attend.

ASSISTING MSGR. BALL in striving to make the young people's mission the first of its kind in Geneva, an outstanding event in the spiritual life of the Catholic youth of Geneva are the Rev. Raymond Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen Church and Father Nangle.

It's a gamble you needn't take when there's an expert who can pack your household goods, move them to your new home or store them in the finest fireproof warehouse in your community . . . often at less cost than it would take to replace damaged goods. Free estimate on request.

Mrs. Rose Cannuli Honored For Service To USO

Geneva — Mrs. Rose Cannuli was honored at a dinner and party at the Geneva Lions Club for her work at the USO "Mom" Cannuli, as she was known to the GI's, received a plaque from the Lions Club.

It was inscribed "Meritorious award to Mrs. Rose Cannuli for unselfish devotion to all service men."

Gordon Edgley, USO director, Mayor W. Erle Rogers and Michael G. Michaels, toastmaster paid tributes to her devotion and activities in behalf of servicemen.

Edgley, pointing out that the USO would be unable to operate without its volunteer workers, said Mrs. Cannuli did an outstanding job.

Mayor Rogers emphasized that what Mrs. Cannuli has done for the servicemen can't be measured by dollars and cents. He read a poem, written by his brother, the late A. Glenn Rogers, entitled "A Friend," and dedicated it to her.

Michaels read an original poem dedicated to Mrs. Cannuli and added that the activities reflected a great deal of credit upon the community.

Lions President Samuel Van Kirk presided at the meeting.

Thomas Comisky Honored In Geneva

Geneva — Thomas J. Comisky, former director of the Winneck Post American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, was honored at the $10-a-plate booster night dinner of the corps at the Legion home.

A former commander of the post, he was presented a plaque in appreciation for his 27 years of service with the corps.

An inscription on the plaque read: "To Thomas J. Comisky in appreciation for his outstanding contribution to the Winneck Post Drum and Bugle Corps, 1929 to 1956, presented by the 1956 drum corps."

Comisky was original director of the corps and he helped organize it in 1929. He was both drum major and then director of the corps till 1946.

Under Comisky, the corps came from 97th place in national competition in 1931 to 8th place in 1946. The drum corps is now the oldest corps in terms of consecutive years in competition.

One hundred persons attended the dinner. Humphrey Donahue was toastmaster.
