Holy Father Felicitates Sister Of St. Therese

Lisieux, France — (RNS) — Sister Genevieve of the Holy Face, last surviving sister of St. Therese of the Child Jesus, received a special message from Pope Pius XII on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of her religious profession.

Sister Genevieve, now 85, entered the Carmelite convent here in 1896, six years after her sister, who has become familiarly known as The Little Flower and is a patroness of Catholic missions throughout the world.

Another sister, Agnes, was at that time the Mother Superior of the convent. Three and a half years older than St. Therese, Sister Genevieve was the constant companion of the saint. After St. Therese's death, Sister Genevieve wrote the story of her life.

In addition to sending greetings to the octogenarian nun, Pope Pius authorized Bishop Andre Jacquemin of Lisieux to give a papal benediction and a jubilee indulgence to all who took part here in observing Sister Genevieve's diamond anniversary. Before entering the convent, the

Brothers Become Catholics On Same Day Miles Apart

Baghdad, Iraq — (NC) — Two members of a prominent Baghdad family of the Nestorian faith became Roman Catholics on the same day — but in cities 10,000 miles apart and unknown to each other.

This was revealed here by Father Joseph LeBran, S.J., director of the alumni association at Baghdad College. Two brothers, alumni of the secondary school operated here by 45 Jesuits from the Boston Province, discovered the coincidence recently.

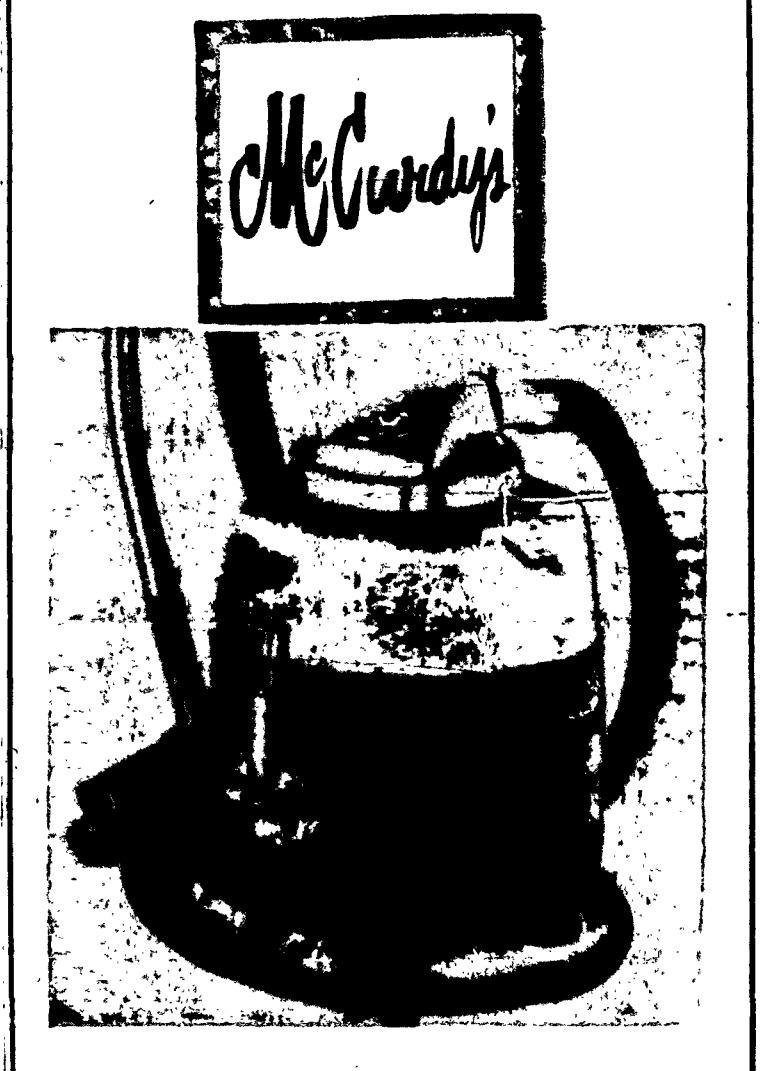

The older brother, Sargon Rustum, was received into the Church while attending Santa Clara University in California. On the same day, his younger brother, Rustum Rustum, then attending Baghdad College here, was baptized.

The Nestorians, who broke away from the Church, followed the teachings of Nestorius, a fourth-century Bishop. He as-

Left Wing Regime Dismisses Chaplains

Brussels, Belgium — (NC) — Two chaplains for the 6,000 Catholic boatmen on Belgium's waterways have been dismissed from the governmental Social Service by the left-wing government.

The chaplains, one at Antwerp and one at Charleroi, directed the work of libraries, youth organizations, family circles and other organizations for the boatmen. The Antwerp chaplain celebrated Mass in a boat-church, the St. Joseph, on Sundays and weekdays.
