Mission For Teenage Youth Held By 2 Geneva Parishes

Geneva—A Mission for Teen-Agers is being conducted this week for young people of both local parishes, St. Stephen and St. Francis de Sales.

The Rev. Timothy O'Dwyer, S.J., New York is conducting the mission services.

All young people are attending morning Mass in their own parish. Each evening beginning Tuesday and lasting through Friday, special services are being held at 8:30 p.m. in St. Francis de Sales Church.

PUPILS of both St. Stephen and St. Francis de Sales are attending as well as Catholic students attending Geneva High School.

The services open with the recitation of the Rosary followed by announcements and instructions. A hymn is sung after which Father O'Dwyer will deliver a sermon on The Problems of Youth. The service closes with another hymn and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Father O'Dwyer urges all parents of teen-agers beginning with those in the 9th grade and up to and including those in their early 20's, to make it possible for their children to attend the mission.

All young people in the age bracket mentioned were invited to attend regardless of belief or religion.

BOYS LEGION SCHEDULED BY LEGION AT COLGATE
The Empire Boys' State sponsored by the American Legion each year, a citizenship training program designed to meet the needs of youth, will be held at Colgate University, Hamilton from June 24 to June 30. Twenty-five juniors from Monroe County High Schools will be selected.
