65 Nurses Receive Caps At St. Mary's Hospital

Sixty-five student nurses, the largest class in recent years, received their caps in a ceremony marking the completion of a six-month pre-clinical period, Tuesday, March 6 at 4 p.m. in the chapel of St. Mary's Hospital.

His Excellency Bishop Kearney blessed the caps and celebrated Holy Mass assisted by the Rev. Paul G. Wohlrab, hospital chaplain and the Rev. Henry Atwell.

Also in the Sanctuary were the Reverend Fathers Richard Torney, Michael P. O'Brien, George S. Wood, John W. LeVeque, William Amann, Joseph Donovan and Robert Kress.

ADDRESSING the class, Bishop Kearney stressed the enhancement of beauty, solemnity, and dignity of the occasion by privilege of Holy Mass.

"That your first act upon receiving your cap, the symbol of your chosen profession, is the reception of Holy Communion," Bishop Kearney said, "shows that you want Christ as your companion through every step of the years that follow, that you are presenting Him with your future. God bless you in your hopes and your high and holy ambitions."

The caps were presented by Sister Martina, hospital administrator, and Sister Frances, director of the School of Nursing, assisted by Mrs. Rita Battaglia and Miss Susan Bruno, instruc-
