> I WAS PRESENT at the meeting and was impressed by what this man said. He felt that his relationship with God was a purely personal proposition and after a quarter of a century of making monthly Holy Hours he was following his philosophy out to its logical conclusion. And he was "on the side of the angels."

The Nocturnal Adoration Seciety has no place for tectal activity, or business contacts, or political ambition. Its meanhers have "no motive for gath. oring together other than the love of God, me other program than prayer, no other ambition than to please the Sacrod Heart of Jesus by making atomement for the aims of the world and by playing their part in furthering the work of
