Family Guidance Group Plans Communion Sunday

Family Guidance Group of the Immaculate Conception Parish will observe its annual group Communion at the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 18, the Sunday nearest the feast of St. Joseph, Patron Saint of families.

Children and parents will sit together and go to the rail together.

WHEN THIS custom was first started, the parents sat behind the children in the center pew of Immaculate Conception Church and did not quite fill up the space behind the school children. Each year the parents participating in the group Communion have increased in such numbers that practically all who attend that 9 a.m. Mass are communicants.

Since all members of all families are members of the Family Guidance Group, whether actively attending meetings or not, all parents are urged to attend this mass and receive Holy Communion with their children.
