Career Banquet Set At St. Charles Parish

Fourth annual career banquet of the youth club of St. Charles Borromeo Church will be held on Sunday, March 18 at 5:30 p. m. at St. Charles parish hall. Club members are welcome to invite their school friends. The youth club is limited to high school students within the parish and the purpose of the "career" banquet is to give the students an insight of the vocations, professions and careers which they may decide to pursue at the completion of their schooling.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS to impart the advantages of their chosen fields to the club members will be the Rev. Robert A. Keteher, pastor, who will speak on Religious Vocations; Mrs. Shirley Buetner of the personnel department of Sibley, Lindsay and Curr will present some of the interesting aspects of retail merchandising.

Vincent Natale, a teacher in Public School 42, will address the group on the benefits within the educational field, and Al Bergeron, editor of the Teen Page in the Monday edition of the Democrat and Chronicle, will speak on newspaper work and journalism.

The Rev. Donald Mulcahy, director of the Catholic Family Center, will be toastmaster. The Rev. Charles A. Bennett is moderator of St. Charles Youth Club. The parents of the club members play an important role in youth club activities and in these days of parental criticism for the juvenile delinquency growth throughout our country, such action is a fitting example for a partial solution to this pressing
