Painting Honors Patroness

Young Adult Group Formed At St. Andrew's

Organization of a new young adult group was initiated at a meeting at St. Andrew Parish hall Thursday, March 22 with more than 100 persons in attendance.

The group, to be known as the St. Thomas More Club, announced as its objective "the promotion of Catholic life through social, spiritual and charitable activities."

Tentative plans of the group based on suggestions of those present call for such monthly activities as dinner dances, picnics, Communion breakfasts and business meetings. Other suggested activities include bowling clubs, square dances, retreats, golf club, fishing, charitable works and a club newspaper.

A TEMPORARY steering committee was elected to guide activities of the club until regular elections may be held. This committee will also prepare a constitution for approval of the membership.

The first social activity of the new group will be co-sponsorship of a semi-formal dance to be held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, April 14. The St. John Bosco Club of Holy Rosary Parish and the Monicans of St. Monica Parish are joining with the St. Thomas More Club in this venture.

An open house is scheduled tentatively for April 15 at 7 p.m. and the next meeting of the group will be Thursday April 26 both at St. Andrew Parish hall.

Membership, which is not limited to the parish, is open to anyone of college age or over.

HN Men To Honor Msgr. Hoefen

Assisting at the Mesdames Raymond W. Zink, general chairman, announced that City Councilman John G. Bittner, will be toastmaster; Rev. James R. Barnett, S.J., rector, McQuaid Jesuit High School, will be principal speaker; Vic Raschi of New York Yankee fame will represent the sports world; a special movie will be shown for the youngsters.

Reservations must be in by April 2 with either Perry Finks, president of the Holy Name Society, CO 4731 or Lester Burke, ticket chairman, CO 4758.

St. Ambrose Holy Name Lists Communion Breakfast

St. Ambrose Holy Name Society has completed plans for the annual father and son Communion breakfast.

Holy Name members and their sons will receive Holy Communion and assist at Mass on Sunday, April 2 at 8 a. m. Breakfast will be served at the Powers Hotel at 9:30 a. m. The committee extends an invitation to all men of the parish. There will be entertainment and prizes.

The Rev. Michael Blondi, C.S.B., ordained in June 1951 and teacher at Aquinas Institute will be the guest speaker. Father's topic will be "Family Leadership."

The Rev. Joseph Gorman is society's urged to attend. All are invited.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Hickey At Cathedral

The funeral of Mrs. Constance Duffy Hickey, wife of Jeremiah G. Hickey, Sr., president of Hickey-Freeman Co. was held at the home, 2100 St. Paul St. and at Sacred Heart Cathedral on Monday, March 26.

Mrs. Hickey, an exemplary Catholic laywoman and a member of one of Rochester's oldest and most prominent families died March 24, 1956 after a long illness. She was 73.

His Excellency Bishop Kearney presided at a Mass of Requiem offered by His Excellency, Auxiliary Bishop Casey, rector of the Cathedral. Bishop Kearney imparted the final absolution.

Chaplain to Bishop Kearney were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wilfred T. Craugh and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Mahoney.

Also attending were the Right Reverend Monsignors John F. Goggin, P.A. John E. Maney, chancellor; Charles F. Shay, Louis Edelman, Arthur E. Rattigan and Richard K. Burns.

Also the Reverend Fathers Charles J. Foley, S.J., Robert J. Boyle, S.J., John P. O'Meara, C.S.B., Joseph T. Maloney, Leo C. Mooney, Francis J. Taylor, Edwin Wedow, Arthur F. Florack, Francis W. Luddy, Thomas M. Reddington, William G. Charbonneau and Edward J. McAniff.

Bearers were: Walter Hickey, Jr., Jeremiah G. Hickey, John Ambrose O'Hara, Jack Riordan, Walter Duffy and Harry Yates.

Mrs. Hickey, a charter member of the Catholic Women's Club was active in church and civic affairs and known in many circles for private charitable efforts. To her friends, however, she was more associated in their minds with her home and family.

Daughter of the late Walter B. Duffy, Rochester industrialist and the late Mrs. Teresa O'Dea Duffy, she was a graduate of Loretto Convent School, Hamilton, Ont., Canada and Ogontz School, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hickey was a member of the Rosary Guild of Sacred Heart Cathedral and among other groups, the Women's Council, Rochester Chamber of Commerce. She was active in the Rochester Civic Music Association and alumnae organization of the Ogontz School.

Last June, she and Mr. Hickey

Firm's Directors Pay Tribute To Mrs. Hickey

In tribute to the late Mrs. Constance Duffy Hickey, wife of Jeremiah G. Hickey, Sr., president of Hickey-Freeman Company, the Board of Directors at a meeting held Tuesday, March 27 unanimously passed the following resolution:

CONSTANCE J. HICKEY
The beloved wife of a beloved President — an inspiration to us all — departed from our midst on Saturday, March 24, 1956. Our "First Lady" has been summoned to a higher court.

Despite frailness of stature, she lived a life of tireless service and self-sacrifice — a life that only a great and abiding love could have sustained.

In every scene of life's stage, she was to be found — modest and unassuming — playing her favorite role of humility and retirement — making much of the attainments of those around her, and leaving untold far greater accomplishments of her own. Always preferring the background for herself, she gladdened the honoring of others.

She blended a queenly stateliness with a sweet and gentle character that endeared her to all, and turned countless mo-
