Camp's New Kitchen, Dining Hall

THE NEW $30,000 kitchen and dining hall at Camp Columbus on Owasco Lake, now under construction, will be ready for 1956 camping season. Proceeds from the Minstrels of 1956 to be presented by St. Alphonsus Church Minstrel Association at Emerson Auditorium, East High School, Auburn on April 23 and 24 will go towards cost of the new building.

Mr., Mrs. Nassar Observe Golden Wedding Jubilee

Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Murad J. Nassar of 179 Gardiner Ave. opened with Solemn High Mass in St. Patrick Church, Rochester on Saturday morning, April 7 at 10 a. m.

Celebrant was the Rev. Leo C. Mooney with the Rev. James C. Lane, deacon and the Rev. Robert A. Meng, subdeacon. A special blessing sent by Pope Pius XII was read during the Mass by Father Mooney, pastor of St. Patrick's.

THE MESSAGE dated Vatican City, March 28, 1956 said:

"The Secretariat of State of His Holiness is directed by the Holy Father, following request from Mr. Edward A. J. Nassar, to assure Mr. and Mrs. Murad J. Nassar of His prayers on the occasion of their fiftieth anniversary of marriage, and has pleasure in conveying to them and all their loved ones, in pledge of abiding graces and favors, the paternal Apostolic Blessing of His Holiness."

Attending the Mass were their sons, Adib and his wife and children Kay Francis and David and Edward A. J. Nassar and daughter, Mrs. Morris Tannos with husband and children, Carol Ann and Joan Tannous.

After the Mass, a reception was held in the parish hall where relatives and friends greeted the jubilarians.

Mr. and Mrs. Nassar were married at Mt. Lebanon in 1906 and came to Rochester two years after they were married.

Rosary Society Lists Breakfast

Rosary Society of Holy Cross Parish will hold its annual Communion breakfast in the school auditorium, Sunday, April 15 following the 8 a. m. Mass. Gerald Barrett of Webster, attorney, will speak.

There will also be a mother and daughters' tureen supper held on April 19. Mrs. Betty Kohlmeier is chairman. Entertainment will be furnished by the Val Mates dancers.

St. Salome Mission Group Lists Cards

Mission Society of St. Salome Parish will conduct a card party, Tuesday, April 17 at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

Table prizes for men and women will be awarded. Refreshments will be served. Tickets are $1.00 each. Ella Ernst is chairman.

Holy Angels Home Needs To Be Heard

A talk on the needs of Holy Angels Home will be given to the Mothers Club of Holy Apostles Parish, home parish of two of the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity who conduct the home, in the school hall, Austin St. on April 23 at 9 p.m.

Speaker will be Agnes Marie Coon. The two Sisters are Sister M. of Our Lady of Charity Gocshar and Sister M. of St. John Eudes Parish, both of whom entered the order from Holy Apostles Parish.

Need of improvements at the School was cited by the Sisters in the instance of last week when girls went to the Hayloft in Henrietta for a skating party because of no place for them at the Home. When a new gym is provided the girls will be able to skate there often.

MORE RESPONSES are being received with these excerpts from letters:

"Please accept our check for $25.00 as a small contribution towards your wonderful cause. We only wish it were more. May God grant you success in your most worthy undertaking . . ."

". . . Inclosed is $25.00 for your new Home . . . wishing you success in your drive . . ."

". . . I am enclosing a check for $10.00 for your Building Fund . . . Hope your fund keeps growing steadily. I will ask St. Joseph to take a personal interest in your building project. You belong to Our Lady of Charity, his spouse, and He will see you through."

Bus Tour Club Plans Several Non-Profit Summer Trips To Shrines

Organized for persons without their own transportation or along in years and not caring to drive, the "Eve" Haynes Motor Bus Tours Club is now accepting applications for several summer bus tours.

The Club was organized by E. P. Haynes, 529 Broadway, Rochester 7, N. Y., who is widely known in this area for successful trips by bus.

The Motor Bus Tours Club is a local, civic, non-commercial membership club working solely, at no profit, in the interest of those who have no automobile and others who enjoy carefree traveling, the prospectus states.

ANY PROFITS made on the trips or on memberships are used to give free trips to deserving underprivileged children and oldsters who will benefit by and appreciate an unexpected outing. Each tour carries one or more such persons at the club's expense.

Among tours announced are Sunday, April 15 to Veterans' Hospital, Buffalo and, Father Baker's Shrine at Lackawanna; Sunday, May 20, pilgrimage to the North American Martyrs Shrine, Auriesville; Sunday, July 1 to Wednesday, July 4, Martyrs Shrine Pilgrimage to Midland, Ontario plus sight-seeing tour and boat cruise; Tuesday, July 24 to Saturday, July 28, five day pilgrimage to Ste. Anne de Beaupre and other, including "Mystery Tours."

Information on what membership in the club entitles holder, and complete information on hotel accommodations, bus fares, etc. will be furnished by Everett P. Haynes whose telephone number is GReenfield 2853.

Third Order of St. Francis members will meet at St. Patrick Church, 454 Plymouth Ave. North at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 22. The Rev. Leo C. Mooney, spiritual director, will conduct the meeting.

No Profession will take place in April, but those who have been novices for one full year will be professed in May.

Life of the active Tertiary is summed up by the Rev. Raymond Oosdyke, O.F.M., Conv. as follows:

"To keep faith alive and to grow daily in sanctity the Tertiary prays his daily office, attends Mass if possible, otherwise, unites himself spiritually to the Holy Sacrifice, if he cannot be present physically. His Grace before and after meals helps to recall him into the presence of God. His evening examination keeps a check on his daily progress.

"Moderation in the use of all earthly things renders the control of his passions easier and at the same time plays a part in the material foundation of his home and family happiness. Fervent Communions bring Jesus into the heart and back into the home.

"The kind direction and Christ-like encouragement of the monthly meetings and the proscription of bad books and plays keep the home shielded from the evil spirit. Built on a rock which is the rule of St. Francis, perfect imitator of Christ, the waves of unbelief, worldliness and immorality beat in vain against such homes because the families of genuine Tertiaries have Christ in them for their protection."
