Father Damasus Listed In Art Gallery Talk

Memorial Art Gallery members will hear Father Damasus-Winzen, P.O. of the Benedictine Mount Saviour Monastery, Elmira in another of his lectures on Early Christian and Medieval Art at the Gallery, Monday, April 23 at 2 p. m.

His theme, "The Easter Season in Medieval Manuscripts" will be illustrated with his unique collection of color transparencies.

Columbus Civic Center To Feature CYO Circus

Trampoline artists, acrobats, tumblers and AAU gymnastic champions will perform at the CYO Circus, May 5-6, at the Columbus Civic Center Auditorium.

The circus is the culmination of the fall and winter physical education program in which the children and adults demonstrate the skills which they have acquired while attending the CYO gym classes.

MANY PERFORMERS will take part in the program, including Quentin Polinelli, one of America's former handbalancing champions, who will appear as the "Old Timer" in the Day Crockett Story. His son Thomas, who is four years old, will be his balancing partner. Collegiate gymnastic champions who are former CYO members will also perform.

The Poodles, New York State Champion baton twirlers are also scheduled to appear. The Nazareth Hall Cadets Drill Team will be seen in precision marching drills.

The public is invited, and tickets may be procured from any of the children who will participate in the circus. Tickets are also available at the CYO office.
