$135,341 Pledged New Christ The King Parish

Pledges totaling $135,341 toward erection of buildings for the newly-established parish of Christ The King, Irondequoit, were reported this week by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Mahoney, pastor.

More than 200 men sought a minimum of $125,000 in three-year pledges during a two-hour parishwide canvass on Sunday, March 25. The over-the-top campaign result brought a message of "sincere gratitude" from Monsignor Mahoney to both parishioners and campaigners. He said many generations to come will benefit "from the noble sacrifices made by all who participated in our campaign."

MONSIGNOR Mahoney broke ground March 18 for a combination church, school and parish hall building on a 15-acre plot on Kings Highway (formerly N. Goodman St. extension) just south of Titus Ave.

Completion of the building is expected in autumn. Sisters of St. Joseph who will staff the school will reside in a rear portion of the building. General chairman of the campaign was John P. McGinn, Elmer Dehn, Dr. John Morton and Dr. Bernard Tofany served as co-chairmen. Assisting in direction of the fund drive was Foley Associates, Inc., a Rochester fund-raising organization. Monsignor Mahoney pointed out that pledge payments may be made to the Church of Christ The King, Box 95, Irondequoit Station, Rochester 17, N. Y., or that envelopes may be deposited in special Christ The King collection boxes at the entrance doors of three surrounding parishes — St. Margaret Mary Church, St. Thomas Church and St. Cecilia Church.
