Aquinas Students Win State Speech Competition

Two Aquinas Institute orators will represent New York State in the National Forensic League finals to be held in Oklahoma in June. The two students took top state awards in their class at Syracuse last weekend.

John Nugent, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Nugent of 95 Lozier St., was judged best in the extemporaneous division. Five times he had to prepare and deliver a seven minute speech on current events.

Joseph Dolan, 16, won top honors in the humorous division.

JOHN NUGENT JOSEPH DOLAN

with a talk on the "woolen mitten situation." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Dolan, 36 Trafalgar St.

COMPETING WITH 200 other contestants, representing some 22 public and private schools from all parts of the state the boys won two of the possible six state titles.

Before the boys go to Oklahoma, school authorities must obtain permission of the State Regents authorities, according to the Rev. Joseph A. O'Reilly, C.S.B., coach. Regents examinations are scheduled at the same time as the finals.
