He Knows Your Yard Like a Book

While he may not know just where you planted that new rose bush, this man can quickly look up the size and shape of your property. He is Edgar B. Borate of the ROCHESTER GAS AND ELECTRIC's Maps and Records Department. His detailed maps of this area show exactly where your gas and electric lines are located. When repairs become necessary, he gives this information to the RG&E service men who need it to do the job as quickly as possible. In that way he helps to bring you the best gas and electric service with the least inconvenience and trouble.
