500 Attend Annual Sports Banquet At St. Monica's

More than 500 boys, girls and their parents were present at St. Monica's fifth annual sports dinner Thursday, April 26 in the parish hall.

Purpose of the annual dinner is to provide scholarships for two St. Monica students to Catholic high school and to encourage the youth program by the presentation of awards and commendations for athletic and scouting achievements.

Scholarships were awarded David Lemieux and Terrance Baumer by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert, pastor. Trophies and awards were given boys and girls representing the parish in various sports programs.

Bob Turner of WHAM was guest speaker. He encouraged the youngsters to participate in the parish youth programs, perfecting their faculties and their character.
