than 200 men on Sunday afternoon, May 20. A minimum goal of $125,000 in three-year pledges has been set.

AIM OF THE FIRST major fund drive to be conducted in the six-year-old parish is threefold: the addition of four classrooms to the presently overcrowded school; construction of a second floor and chapel to the convent building; and debt reduction.

Cochairmen of the campaign committee are Edmund J. Costich and George B. McAvoy. Division leaders include Walter E. Baker, William Binsack, Arthur J. Boss, Edgar J. Bretz, John E. Driscoll, Joseph Fitzpatrick, Edward Mosta, George W. Niemi, Bruno Nunnari, William J. O'Hagen, Leo A. O'Halloran and John Sheridan.

A meeting of campaign lieutenants is scheduled at 8 p. m. Thursday, May 10, in the church hall.

Speaker

REV. MAURICE MCCARTHY, S.M.A., who is visiting here from Ireland will address members and friends of the Rochester Elms Gaelic Football and Hurling Club at dinner, Saturday May 5 at Doud Post on Buffalo Road. The dinner is being held in honor of the founder of the Irish Republic, Padraic Pearse.

Military Rites Held For C. M. Hennessey

Military services for Charles M. Hennessey were conducted at the John M. Hedges Funeral Home and at St. Ambrose Church on April 27.

Mr. Hennessey of 351 Westchester Ave. died April 23, 1956. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Joseph W. Dalley assisted by the Rev. Joseph O. Gorman, Deacon and the Rev. Francis R. Davis, Subdeacon. The sanctuary also were Monsignor Leo Keenan of Rockport, Ill. and the Reverend Fathers Albert J. Geiger, and Joseph P. Beattini.

Bearers were Emil Dengler, William Leiberger, Spurgeon Ledlie, Ray Sweeney, Charles Hennessey and William Hall.

Mr. Hennessey was commercial manager of the telephone firm when he retired three years ago.

He was born in Rochester and attended Holy Rosary School and Niagara University. He served with the Field Artillery in World War I.

He was also honorary member of the Laurelton Fire Department and member of Valley Post, American Legion and Holy Name Society of St. Ambrose Church. Survivors include his wife, Mary C. Hennessey, his brother, George J. and three sisters, Jane F., Mary C. and Sister Agnes De Sales of the sisters of St. Joseph, three nieces and one nephew. Burial was held in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

St. Christopher Society Organized in Webster

Catholic young adults interested in the formation of the St. Christopher Society of Holy Trinity Parish met Thursday, April 26 in Holy Trinity school hall.

After several weeks of preparation, a Constitution and by-laws were adopted by those present. The present officers are: president, Robert Stein; vice-president, Richard Clitenden; secretary, Betty Bass; and treasurer, John Burwick. The spiritual director is the Rev. Elmer W. Helndl.

Rev. John O'Malley, of Holy Cross Parish, gave the members a few ideas from the Xavier Club of which he is director. Rev. George Kahl, pastor of Holy Trinity, also congratulated the society on the rapid progress of its formation.

Carol Mancke, Bernard Stein, and Peter Kasper, acting chairman of the spiritual, social, and publicity committees, respectively, were requested to prepare committee reports to be given at the next meeting on Thursday, May 24. Also at this meeting, Gerald Barrett, well-known Webster attorney, will present some tips for the society's future success.

Niagara Falls Talk Set For Basilian

The Rev. R. A. Fendergast, C.S.B. of St. John Fisher College will speak at the Niagara Falls First Friday Club luncheon on May 4. He will talk on the subject "Christian Vocations - The Way to get to Heaven."

Father Fendergast is an assistant professor of Economics at the College and also the Spiritual Director of the students. His address will stress the need of giving a Christian vocation at least the same consideration that is ordinarily given to the preparation for professional life.

His remarks are slanted towards parents, in order to give them first an awareness of the problem, and also some firm principles upon which to base present vocational decisions.

The store will be open on Tuesday, May 8, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. to receive donations. Store hours Wednesday will be from 9 to 5. Mrs. James Pollock is chairman.

At the monthly meeting on Monday, May 7th, business will include the election of a nominating committee. Pictures and explanation of a "Closed Retreat" at the Cenacle Convent on East Ave. will also be on the program. The relocation of the rosary in the church at 8 p.m. will precede the meeting.
