Archbishop Hits Segregation On Cape Town Buses

Cape Town, South Africa—(NC)—The decision to introduce apartheid (racial segregation) on the buses in Cape Town does not have any approval, Archbishop Owen McCann of Cape Town said here.

Traditionally the most tolerant of the large South African cities, Cape Town had until now resisted segregation on public conveyances, although it is enforced in most South African centers. Under pressure from the government, the city has under protest been obliged to conform to segregation.

Archbishop McCann said: "I think the new regulations are unfair and discriminatory because they do not provide equal facilities. Moreover, they constitute a slur on the people who have generally conducted themselves well on the public of mixed blood in Cape Town transports."

Under the new regulations most of the downstairs seats in buses are for Europeans. Upstairs seats and some of those downstairs in the rear of the buses are designated "all classes."

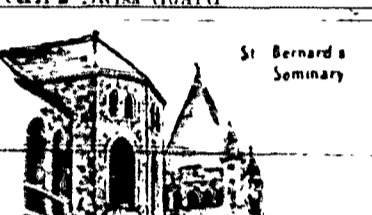

New members of the Swiss guards, the Vatican's picturesque security corps, pledged their allegiance to Pope Pius XII during a colorful Rome ceremony. Shown examining the results are: Mgr. Paolo Maria Krug, the guard's chaplain (left); and Col. Enrico De Pfyffer d'Altshofen, commander. The ceremony was attended by Vatican officials and diplomats accredited to the Holy See. Organized in 1506, the Swiss guards are charged with guarding Vatican gates and doors to the papal apartments and constitute the Pope's only strictly military organization. They appear at all Pontifical functions in their characteristic dress uniform of crimson, gold and black. (RNS Photo)

Swiss Guard Inducts Recruits In 450th Anniversary Ceremony

Vatican City (RNS)—Eight hundred recruits were inducted into the Swiss Guard today in a ceremony marking the 450th anniversary of the corps' founding.

The induction of new recruits takes place annually on May 6, the anniversary of the day, in 1506, when 189 members of the oldest of the Vatican's four armed services held St. Peter's Square against a thousand mercenaries of Emperor Charles V during the sack of Rome.

This year's ceremony was of special significance because it marked the 450th anniversary of the Swiss Guard by Pope Julius II in 1506. A special medal was struck in honor of the anniversary. It shows portraits of Popes Julius and Pius XII on one side.

Planned Parenthood Adopts 'Comic Book' Propaganda

Brooklyn — (NC) — "A new moral and ethical love" has been reached in the publication of "Escape from Fear," new birth control 'comic-book' issued by the Planned Parenthood Federation, Father Daniel Egan, S.A., has declared.

SPEAKING AT A parents' meeting in St. Cecilia's Church here, the priest took issue with Protestant Dean James A. Pike who endorsed the booklet as "a candid but sensitive presentation" on the use of contraceptives.

If copies of this first edition of 150,000 comic-books fall into the hands of teen-agers, the priest said, "it will be responsible for a further increase in youthful promiscuity and illegitimacy."

Delegates to the 36th annual meeting of the Planned Parenthood Federation were earlier told at their meeting in New York that copies of the booklet will be distributed nationally to 110 social and religious affiliates of the Federation.

Businessman Gives Estate To Nuns

Alton, Hampshire, England—(NC) — An American businessman has given an estate to the Church in memory of his wife.

The estate, consisting of a home and 30 acres near here, will be used as the motherhouse for the Sisters of St. Lucy Filippini, a congregation devoted to teaching and welfare work. Members of the American province of the community will staff the convent. The Sisters are represented in many U.S. archdioceses and dioceses.

The new convent was donated by William V. Griffin of New York, businessman and a Knight Commander of St. Gregory the Great, in memory of his wife, Isabel. Cardinal Griffin, who died in 1954.

'Angels Of Mercy' Parade To Highlight Nurse Day

Chicago — (NC) — Nurses Day will be celebrated here May 18 with a twilight parade.

This 8th annual parade, sponsored by the Sorrowful Mother Novena, will be nondenominational and nonsectarian, as the others were. It is said to be the only one of its kind in the U.S.

Father C. M. Brissette, O.S.M., director of the Sorrowful Mother Novena, said that the parade has been effective in focusing attention on the need for nurses and the excellence of the profession.

The first Nurses Day with its Parade was held in 1949, under the auspices of the Sorrowful Mother Novena, as a public service.

Loyalty To Family, Nation Catholic Duty Says Prelate

Boston — (NC) — Americans do not have a self-centered concept of loyalty, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing told a veteran's organization at a rally on historic Boston Common. Loyalty, the Archbishop said, "is a question of justice . . . U. S. at the present time. Archbishop Cushing estimated, "but the number of persons engaged in front activity has been estimated by the Communist leaders themselves to outnumber the actual Communist Party membership by a ratio of 10 to 1."

While we should have "a passionate loyalty to the nation and to the way of life which is the heart of its heritage," the Archbishop said, ". . . We cannot subscribe to the position: 'My country right or wrong. We must always say: 'My country: when it is right, I must help keep it so; when it is wrong, I must help make it right.'"

It is time, Archbishop Cushing added, "to take the measure of those who are unwilling to declare their loyalty. This measure should be taken in no spirit of witch hunting or the persecution of people for high-minded idealism — but neither should we abdicate our right to determine who are loyal and who are not, out of fear lest we be labeled 'witch burners' by the real witches who have cast their spell over too many Americans."

There are only about 20,000 "full-grown Communists" in the United States, he said, but they are the "most dangerous" because they are "so well hidden and so well organized." He said that the "Bishop spoke over the voice of Fatima radio network. His talk was transmitted later on American programs. Bishop Sheen said the message given at Fatima, by the Blessed Virgin, "was one of sacrifice and spiritual preparation so that we could approach nearer to God."

Faith Regained After Bp. Sheen Talk

Fatima, Portugal — (NC) — An American pilgrim said that a member of her family had been brought back to the practice of the Catholic Faith after hearing a radio address here by Auxiliary Bishop Fulton J. Sheen of New York.
