Parish Adds To Holy Angels Home Campaign

The sum of $136.80 was sent to the Sisters of Charity of Refuge who conduct Holy Angels Home for girls, 1326 Winton Rd. North by a small parish in answer to the appeal for a new Monastery and other improvements, the Sisters report this week.

IN A NOTE accompanying the gift is the following: "This check ($136.80) is an offering from the people of our small parish to assist in your good work. It is the return from a paper drive conducted by the Holy Name and Rosary and Altar societies. We wish you all God's Blessing and success in your wonderful care of needy girls."

Other excerpts said: "I am sending this donation ($5.00) for your Building Fund, in thanksgiving for a favor I received through the Sacred Heart and the intercession of the Blessed Mother."

"Enclosed is a check for $25.00 as my small contribution to your Building Fund announced that on Ascension Thursday, May 10 a High Mass was sung by one of the Basilian Fathers for all their benefactors, all who sent donations for the Building Fund or have asked their prayers for their special intentions during their May devotions."

Requiem Offered For Mrs. Doyle

His Excellency Bishop Kearney imparted the last rites for Mrs. Mary C. Doyle, mother of Miss Mary Agnes Doyle, secretary to the diocesan superintendent of schools in the Church of the Epiphany, Sodus Saturday, May 5.

Mrs. Doyle, long active in church affairs in Sodus Point and Sodus died at her home on Boyd Road on Wednesday, May 2, 1956 after a long illness. She was a member of the Rosary Altar Society of Church of the Epiphany.

Bishop Kearney was assisted by the Rev. Edward J. McAniff, secretary to the Bishop. High Mass of Requiem was offered by the Rev. James O'Connell, pastor.

Also in the Sanctuary were the Right Reverend Monsignors Gerald C. Lambert, John S. Randall, Arthur E. Hattigan and Charles V. Boyle and the Very Reverend Monsignors Patrick J. Flynn and Dennis W. Hickey.

Besides her daughter, Mary Agnes, Mrs. Doyle is survived by another daughter Mrs. Harold (Margaret) Lawrence, Williamson, N. Y., one son, John, Wallingford, N. Y., a trustee of Epiphany Church; two sisters, Mrs. J. Bowen and Mrs. B. C. Van Allen, both of Buffalo and three grandchildren.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Rochester where the final blessing was given by Father O'Connell assisted by Monsignor Randall and the Very Rev. Msgr. Leslie G. Whalen.

Feast Day Mass Listed At Cenacle

Friends and retreatants of the religious of the Cenacle on East Avenue are invited to join them in honoring Our Lady of the Cenacle on her Feast Day, Saturday, May 12. Mass will be celebrated at 8:30 a.m. by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard K. Burns.

The Cenacle Chaplain, the Rev. Daniel McCarthy will give Benediction in the afternoon at four. The drawing shown here illustrates the attitude of prayer characteristic of her under the title of "Our Lady of the Cenacle." The flame above her head represents the "tongues of fire" which appeared in the descent of the Holy Spirit upon all those who were gathered together with Mary in the first Cenacle, "persevering with one mind in prayer" in the first retreat of the infant Church.

The following committee has been named for the breakfast: Chairman, Miss Helen Durnin; co-chairman, Miss Geraldine Moylan; reception, Misses Marguerite Colgan, Jeanne Schneider and Josephine Kanty; decorations, Mrs. Norbert Wattel and Miss Theresa O'Brien; tickets, Mrs. Garret Comerford and Miss Lorain Hajjar; hostesses, the Misses Marie Vetter, Joan Lusardi, Jeanne Schaefer and Edna Haselwander; publicity, Miss Regina Kennedy and Margaret Rowan.

Friends of the cenacle are invited to the Mass and Communion breakfast and tickets are available through Mrs. Comerford at GR 5038, Miss Hajjar, HO 7894, or at the Cenacle Convent on East Ave. Reservations must be made by Monday, May 14.

The Third Order of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel will meet next day, May 13, at 3 p.m. in St. Francis of Assisi Church.

The meeting will be featured by the reception of postulants into the order who have been prepared for some time by the novice master and novice mistress respectively.

The postulants will become novices for one year, after which, if they persevere and are approved by the council, they will be professed by taking the vows of obedience and chastity according to their state of life.
