

Joan Di Lullo, May Queen, Crowns Statue At Nazareth

Joan DiLullo, May Queen by student election, placed a floral crown on the statue of Our Lady in a May Day ceremony following a Mass in the presence of the Bishop at Nazareth Academy last Tuesday.

His Excellency Bishop Kearney presided at the throne. Celebrant of the Mass was the Rev. Charles Cornell, chaplain at Nazareth. Assisting were: the Rev. Edward E. Steinkirchner, dean; and the Rev. James J. Martin, subdeacon. The Rev. Edward J. McNiff was master of ceremonies.

ceremony in which you have just participated is not new—for us as Catholics or for Nazareth, since for nearly 100 years Nazareth has been doing this very thing. However, it is particularly fitting this year, since on May 31 the Church is celebrating for the first time the new feast of Mary the Queen.

Chaplains to Bishop Kearney were the Rev. W. Oscar Regan, S.B., and the Rev. George S. Wood. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, Chancellor of the diocese, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles V. Boyle, diocesan superintendent of schools and 26 other priests attended.

In his address to the students Bishop Kearney said: "The

The queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DiLullo of 66 Orange Street. For the past year she has been prefect of the school sodality.

Day of Recollection Held At St. Anne's

Junior members of the Legion of Mary in St. Anne Parish, Rochester, who are in high school held a Day of Recollection for the high school students of the parish last Sunday afternoon in the parish hall.

The Day of Recollection was conducted by Rev. Richard Torrey of Our Lady of Mercy High School. The theme of his talks was the lay apostolate, and the importance of this work in the life of every Catholic.

Robert Sena, president of the Junior praesidium, Mater Christi, spoke to the students on the Legion and the Lay Apostolate, showing the connection between the Legion work and the lay apostolate as discussed by Father Torrey.

Before the day ended with meditation and Benediction four discussion groups met in the classrooms, led by four senior legionnaires, Joan Moore, Jean Begler, Agnes Meyering and Jack LeBrun.

The Day of Recollection was planned by members of three Junior praesidia, working with their senior officers, Robert Sena, Shirley Red, and Hildgarda Munkel, and with the Rev. John J. Hempel, spiritual director of the senior praesidium to which the officers belong.

The high school legionnaires made door to door calls in pairs throughout their parish, inviting all Catholic high school students to attend the day of recollection. About 80 high school students attended.
