

Rites Held For Five In Corning, Vicinity

Corning — Funeral services were offered for five residents of the Corning area during the past week. Funeral notices are as follows:

Solemn High Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Church Wednesday morning, May 2, 1956, for Salvatore Russo, 85, of 92 Dyke St., who died the previous Sunday at the home of his nephew Joseph Russo of 92 Dyke St., where he had made his home for some time.

Prayers were said at the late residence, after which Mass was celebrated in the church by the Rev. Hugh Brady, assistant pastor. The Rev. Thomas Brennan, pastor, was deacon, and the Rev. Gerald Dunn, assistant pastor of St. Patrick Church was sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Mary Cemetery, with Anthony S. Russo, co. Anthony R. Russo, Anthony Russo, Nicholas Russo, Raphael Tombasco and Raphael S. Tombasco as bearers.

The son of Saverio and Anna Laminara Russo, he was born September 22, 1870 in Futani, Italy. He came to the United States in 1894 and had been a railroad section foreman with the New York Central for many years. Retiring in 1935, he came to Corning from Waterville, Pa. He was a member of St. Mary's Church.

Surviving are two nephews, Joseph with whom he resided and Aniello Russo of 53 Dodge Avenue; a brother, Marco Russo in Italy; several nieces and nephews in Italy and Corning.

Children's Variety Show Pleases 500 In Waverly

Waverly—Before a capacity audience of nearly 500 parents and friends, the children of St. James School, Waverly, presented their second annual variety show.

Easily the outstanding attraction of the evening was the band under the temporary direction of John Johnson, substituting for the organizer and director, Mrs. Edward Skelly, who was confined to the Tioga County General Hospital. Composed of children between the ages of seven and eleven the band presented Blue Moon and Warming Up.

What is expected to be the nucleus of the St. James orchestra was a violin and saxophone quintet playing The Old Spinning Wheel. Playing were Joyce Seidel, Susanna Broughman, Timothy Clark, Thomas Nolan and James Polinski. Other instrumental numbers included Rita Lockwood at the piano in Autumn Leaves, trumpet solos by Richard Costello, America The Beautiful and Thomas Bevilacqua. A Perfect Day; a violin solo, by Stephen Polinski; and a saxophone trio playing Jeannine with Joyce Seidel, Susanna Broughman and Timothy Clark.

THE DANCES were also well received. Among them were solo numbers by Sharon Patterson and Mary Jo Soprano, and numbers by teams composed of Carolyn Kauth and Timothy Clark in a cowboy dance; a clown dance by William Walker, Thomas O'Brien and Gary Wilcox; a specialty number by Patti Forkan and Thomas Slattery; and a waltz clog by Sheila Murphy, Rose Ann Lougher and Connie Ross.

The third grade boys put on a flag drill featuring precision marching and steps. Vocal solos were Billy Lougher singing Red, Red Robin, and George Tucinarid with He.

Other songs were Thomas Patterson and the chorus in the Aeroplane Song, Gray Bonnet by James Nevedomski, Teresa Fravei and Timothy Clark; Red Barn by George Welch, Bart O'Brien, Pat Schamel and Matthew Carey; Money and the Rich Man by Pat Schamel, John O'Brien and the Chorus.

GROUP SONGS were presented by the 1st and 2nd grades in Welcome, I Want a Girl, Ball Game, Summer Time and Daisy, the chorus in Bubble Gum Dum and Be Patient. Life on the Farm by the first three grades; I Hate Remus by the first two grades; Medley of Old Time Songs, How Do You Do, Powder Your Face With Sunshine. Featured with this number were Nancy Ault and Donald Cary in the Old Mill Stream, and John O'Brien in Old Soft Shoes. The 4th and 5th grades also sang Home Town and the chorus presented Rock and Roll Waltz.

At the midpoint, a pretty scene was portrayed, The Fatima Scene. Mary McLean was Our Lady, and the children were represented by Elizabeth Dugan, Kathleen MacMahon and Donald McDonald.

The evening was concluded with the chorus in a Grand Finale singing Irish On Parade and Off To The County Fair.

Mrs. Edward Skelly was general director. Mrs. Walter Nevedomski chairman assisted by Mrs. Duncan Macdonald; and music was by Eleanor and Richard Maloney. The Rev. G. Stuart Hogan congratulated the children and thanked the directors and chairman. The children of St. James were granted a school holiday on Monday.

Burns - Seidel
Waverly — St. James Church was the scene Saturday morning, April 29, of the marriage in a double-ring ceremony of Miss Frances Seidel of 468 Fulton Street, Waverly and Daniel B. Burns of 334 Roe Avenue, Elmira.

The Rev. G. Stuart Hogan performed the service, and the Rev. Guy Wertz celebrated the nuptial Mass.

Mrs. Mary Sutton was the organist and Mrs. Mary Olskey sang several solos.
