POISED FOR PARISH FUND DRIVE—Final plans for a two-hour fund drive next Sunday, May 20, in St. Cecilia's parish, Irondequoit, are in the hands of the above committee members, who head more than 200 men who will make a parishwide canvass for a minimum of $125,000 in three-year pledges. Bishop Casey To Spur Workers
For St. Cecilia Parish Campaign

His Excellency Auxiliary Bishop Casey will address more than 200 campaigners of St. Cecilia Parish, Irondequoit, at a fund-raising kickoff dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, May 19, in the church hall.

A two-hour parishwide canvass is scheduled Sunday, May 20, with a minimum goal of $125,000 in three-year pledges. It is the first major campaign to be conducted in the six-year-old parish. The Rev. Bernard C. Newcomb, pastor, explained the threefold aim of the drive as including the addition of four classrooms, a nurses' room to the present nine-classroom school, and the construction of a second floor and chapel on the convent building and reduction of the parish debt.

POPULATION GROWTH necessitates expansion in facilities, the pastor said. The school staff, composed of eight Sisters of Mercy and two lay teachers, is expected to increase to 100 pupils with a greater number expected in September. Parishioners have been asked to remain at home on Saturday

Miss Rigney Honored At Geneseo College

Geneseo—Forty years of teaching by Miss C. Agnes Rigney of 86 Main St., Geneseo at the State Teachers College, here were extolled at a testimonial dinner at the college given by the faculty on May 10.

Throughout her 40 years of residence in Geneseo, Miss Rigney has been a most devout member of St. Mary Church of which the Rev. Peter T. Jankowski is the present pastor. Father Jankowski joined in the tributes at the dinner attended by 150 persons.

MISS RIGNEY is the founder of the speech department at Geneseo State Teachers College and was its first chairman.

"She is and has been a true friend and counselor to the students," a spokesman said. Many of them, it was said at the dinner, owe a large share of their later success to a rare unselfishness in her that prompted her to spend time and money in furthering their education. This was done through locating scholarships for them and by other means.

For many years Miss Rigney was the only representative of the Catholic faith on the college faculty and was known as a staunch one.

One of the "charter members," she was a promoter of the Newburgh Club on the campus.

Organizer of the speech clinic which has served free thousands of speech-disabled children in Western New York, the work was done, it was said, with a truly Christian love motivating
