Tribute To Fathers

By Mary Lennon Snyder

Since I wrote in a recent column in praise of the cheerful mother, I have had several good-natured queries from fathers saying in effect, "What about the fathers? Don't we rate a good word?"

Almost as if in answer to this question I encountered a Mrs. Snyder very simple and sincere tribute to fathers in Father Daniel A. Lord's book "Played by Lar".

Before paying his tribute to fathers, Father Lord states that it has always annoyed him a little that in the Roman Martyrology there is no separate listing of saints under fathers and mothers. He goes on to comment however that perhaps "divine providence withheld such a classification on the quite obvious grounds that there would be too many qualifying for admission."

HE GOES ON TO say "No one has bothered to list male saints under the category of 'holy fathers'. There again, holy father is the dear name kept by the sons of religious orders and communities for the saint who thought up their way of life and set them the example on which they pattern their characters.

"But throughout my happy life I have been lucky enough to know many a holy father of a family whose life was in the pattern of those who think first of well.

"THE ENTHRONED paternal tyrant of the Victorian days, the Christian sheik ruling with despotic whim many a European home never seems to have place in American life.

"Even in 'Life with Father' the blustering Mr. Day is more the subject of laughter than of fear. And in Catholic homes I have seen and felt much more of love than of domination of paternal service than of paternal commands of determination to pass on to the children everything possible of faith and opportunity rather than a demanding of awe and servility.

"Defying the philosophical principle that no one can give to others what he himself does not have, American Catholic fathers have miraculously created a generation of children with far greater opportunities than every they themselves possessed.

"THEY HAVE seen to it that their children's chances for education were better. They have worked for laws that would make their lives more secure. They have perhaps spoiled their children with too much loving but so apparently did the father of the prodigal son whom the Savior presented as the sublime example for the fathers of our race.

"If I have any slightest eloquence I could expend it gladly on American Catholic mothers and fathers. Heaven must be full of them. And without too much hesitance, I suggest that many of them knew their purgatories while on earth at the hands of none-too-grateful or gracious children."

I FIND much food for thought in these lines of tribute. And I am intrigued by Father Lord's remarks that husbands have never been "in a way so long suffering." To that I might add that in a world characterized by selfishness and greed, I am inspired by the unselfishness and spirit of self-sacrifice in many American Catholic men of my acquaintance.

Best man was Donald Falcono and ushers were Frank Monacelli, Edward Falcono, Joseph Monacchino, Frank Cioppa, Romeo Agostinelli and David Schindler.

Miss Victoria Jean was flower girl and Russell Soper, ringbearer.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's School of Nursing.

MRS. PASQUALE CIOPPA

Miss Yolanda Ann Falcono, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Falcono, and Pasquale Cioppa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cioppa were married on May 31 in Immaculate Conception Church, Rochester.

Ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Wood, assistant pastor.

Miss Arlene Monacelli, Albion, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Ann Marie Falcono, Mary Ann Falcono, Madeline Mannella, Elizabeth Ripley and Gloria Carrese.

KING AND CENTER

In the 5th century, Nestorianism divided the SACRED HEART OF CHRIST. The effects of this ancient heresy are still felt in Iraq today. The harvest however, is ripe for conversion. Already many Nestorian leaders, in the mountains at Mosul, have begged the Catholic Chaldean Patriarch to send them a shepherd. During this month of June, could you make the Sacred Heart, the King and Center of the hearts of these poor people? We must build a CHAPEL at a cost of $2,000, and a SCHOOL for $3,000. Your name will be inscribed upon a marble plaque and on grateful, prayerful hearts for all eternity. YOUR NERTEST MITE IS MIGHTY MIGHT.

MAKE YOUR WILL HIS WILL PLEASE REMEMBER OUR LORD.

JUNE BRIDES

"Sacrifice is usually difficult and irksome. Only love can make it easy, and perfect love can make it a joy. Sweet Heart of Jesus, be my love." NEWLY-WEDS need all the DIVINE LIFE they can get. Our enrollment goes a long way to help them spiritually. PEPERUAL: Individual $28. Family $100. ANNUAL: Individual $11. Family $5. Have a Mass or Novena of Masses offered by our poor Missionaries for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the Bride and Groom. We shall send a BEAUTIFUL GIFT CARD notifying them of your thoughtfulness.

AFTER HIS OWN HEART

"I love the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. His Mother, very much and would like to support a Priest-Son in and for The Holy and Holy." Will you help to make EUCHERA and ADLY seminarians in Egypt, PRIESTS after the HEART OF CHRIST? Each needs $600 in full or $100 annually for his six-year course. Novice-Sisters CARMEL and GRACIA of the Sacred Heart Convent in India, need $100 per year or $150 annually for their two-year training. Your ADOPTED-SON or DAUGHTER will never forget you in Prayerful Thanksgiving.

SACRED HEART IMAGE

"Behold the Heart that has loved men. Instead of gratitude, I receive from the greater part of mankind only ingratitude." Out of reparation for the human race, could you give a $20 STATUE or $15 PICTURE of the SACRED HEART to remind our Missionaries of the love of Jesus?

ANTIMENSURIUM This is like an Altar Stone, but made of cloth. It contains relics of the martyrs, and it serves as the napkin upon which the bread and wine are consecrated into the Body and Blood of Christ. Could you supply a needy Missionary with an ANTIMENSURIUM or ALTAR STONE at a cost of $1.07? He will remember you each time he offers the Holy Sacrifice.

PALACE OF GOLD

"Stretch forth, O Lord, to thy faithful the right hand of Heavenly aid." Young love is very beautiful, but love that "grows deeper and stronger as the years go on" is even more beautiful. Our Palace of Gold, DOLLAR-A-MONTH Mission Club helps OUR OLD FOLKS grow old gracefully. Will you join or just send us a little gift for them?

OUR DEAR DEPARTED. Please allow our struggling Missionary Priests to offer Mass for DECEASED RELATIVES and FRIENDS. While remembering the dead, forget not the LIVING upon whom has been "laid the heavy burden of sorrow." Many a widow, widower, heretofore Mother, Brother, Sister or friend is left HEARTBROKEN THROUGH DEATH. The Living who remain behind, need spiritual help in abundance. Send them one of our Artistic Multi-colored MASS CARDS.
