Circus Comes to Aquinas Stadium

FAVORITES with all circus goers are the elephants and 40 tons of them are coming to Rochester when Mills Bros. Three Ring Circus appears at Aquinas Memorial Stadium for 2 and 8 p. m. performances on Saturday, June 9. The Aquinas Men's Club, to aid in raising money for its Scholarship Fund, is sponsoring the circus here the one day only. Advance tickets, from which the local organization derives greatest proceeds, are available now from members. In addition to what has been acclaimed the greatest elephant act in circudom today, Mills Bros. Circus will present an array of sawdust talent accumulated from 18 different nations, many of whom are on their first American tour.

St. Agnes Sophomore Wins Hibernian Essay Contest

Miss Elaine Hondorf, sophomore at St. Agnes High School has won a national first prize of $50 and a state first prize of $15 in the annual essay contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Announcement was made this week by Mrs. Bride Shannon, state vice president of the Hibernians' Ladies Auxiliary.

Miss Hondorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hondorf, 17 Riverview Heights, is a parishioner of St. Anne's Church.

HER ESSAY was entitled "Ireland - Economic Development and Industrial Advancement in the Country." In her paper she referred to Elre as "the Cinderella nation of the twentieth century."

The Honorable John M. Conway, Consul General of Ireland, forwarded several publications on Ireland for the school library prior to the contest. He likewise sent a letter of congratulations on the St. Agnes national winner of last year, Miss Patricia Floss, and offered best wishes for success this year.

The Ladies Auxiliary sponsors this essay contest annually on some aspect of Irish life and culture.

First Mt. Carmel Concert Draws Capacity Audience

Auburn - The first Spring Concert of Mount Carmel High School was presented Thursday, May 31 in the auditorium of the school for a capacity audience. Students of the school presented a series of solos, group and choral numbers under the direction of Sister Margaret Josephine, S.S.J., music teacher.

Mrs. George Hippisley was guest conductor. Student accompanist was Dennis Siracusa. Acting assistant accompanists for individual soloists were Mary Ann Cubito and Christine Haight.

The program opened with a salute to Mary, the "Salve Regina" and "Tribute to Song." Joyce Carnicelli, soloist, sang "Into the Night" and was followed by Anthony Cubito playing Granada, a trumpet solo, "Les Filles de Cadix" and "Sweethearts" were sung by Trudi Wells; Carol Fennessy sang "Mozart" and Schubert's "Ave Maria."

OTHER SOLOISTS were Peggy Althouse singing "Barcarolle" from "Fales of Hoffman"; Carol Steigerwald singing "I'll Go Let Only You"; and "Oft in the Still Night" by Miss Wells and Sissy Fennessy.

The Mount Carmel players, consisting of Joseph Adams, clarinet; Lawrence Casey, drums; Don Wilson, trumpet; Anthony Cubito, trumpet; Julian Wright, saxophone; and Mary Ann Cubito and Dennis Siracusa at the piano, played "Anchors Aweigh" and "Daybreak."

Another highlight of the programme was "Thanks Be To God" sung in parts by Rosemary Abrams, Joanne Amico, Miss Fennessy, Sharon Feeley, Carole Muldoon, Miss Wells and Frances Wenderlich.

Among the selections sung by the choral group were "Mother Macree," "Our Lady's Lullaby" and "Te Joseph, Celebrant Oaridus, a clarinet solo, was played by Julian Wright.

THE CONCERT was concluded by the choral classes singing "It's a Grand Night for Singing" and "America, the Beautiful."

Those comprising the choral group were: Rosemary Abrams, Joseph Adams, Peggy Althouse, Joanne Amico, Anthony Basile, Judy Boehenek, Susan Burns, Joyce Carnicelli, Stephen Caru-
