

Guidance Group Sponsors Picnic

Family Guidance Group of Immaculate Conception Parish will sponsor a picnic at Genesee Valley Park for parishioners on Sunday beginning at 2 p. m. near the merry-go-round. James Coughlin and Charles Fender are in charge.

Parishioners are requested to bring their own basket lunch. There will be prizes and games under the direction of Mrs. Howard Palmer, assisted by Harold Goell, Thomas Kaufmann, Howard Palmer and Joseph Wilhelm. This is the last activity for the season.

Value of Discretion
Discretion may not be a brilliant characteristic but it is indispensable to success.

Crowning Ceremony Held At Holy Angels Home

A colorful May Procession and Crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary took place at Holy Angels Home, Winton Road North with the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Refuge and girls participating on May 30.

The girls in white dresses, light blue serge capes and blue and white hats were headed by the president of the Sodality of the Children of Mary carrying a banner of Our Lady.

Following were the Sisters and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis E. Burns. The procession led to the Grotto. Some of the girls carried bouquets which they placed at the shrine while others extolled the Blessed Mother's virtues in prose and rhyme.

TWO OF THE girls who recently made their First Holy Communion shared honors in the May Crowning. One carried the crown and the other placed it on the statue. All prayed the fifth decade of the Rosary, the Crowning of the Blessed Virgin in Heaven, together.

From the grotto the procession went to the Girls' Chapel where Monsignor Burns preached.

Parish Groups' Aims Told At Fairport Supper

"Parish Organizations have their purpose both in bringing the Parish closer to God and in bringing God into the life of men - some leading up to the altar, others bringing the living graces of the Church down into ordinary life", declared Father Thomas F. Brennan, in addressing St. Mary's Guild of Fairport, on Wednesday evening.

The occasion was the spring supper meeting for the installation of newly elected officers. Installed were: Miss Jean Flanagan, President; Miss Margaret Doyle, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Louis Masciangelo, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Milos Agan, Secretary; Mrs. Norman Larreau, Treasurer.

FATHER BRENNAN, Pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Corning, spoke on the general theme of the function of organizations and their relationship to the work of the Church in the parish.

St. Mary's Guild of Assumption Parish, Fairport, has been organized for twelve years. During all this time it has promoted successfully many activities for the welfare of the parish and the community and has assisted the missions substantially through its contributions.

Judge Burke Receives Catholic Action Award

The 4th annual James A. Ryan Memorial Award for outstanding Catholic Action was awarded to Federal Court Judge Harold P. Burke at a Communion Breakfast sponsored by the Holy Rosary Post 942, Catholic War Veterans.

Judge Burke is a graduate of Notre Dame University, a World War I veteran, father of three children and a parishioner of Holy Rosary Parish. He attends daily Mass.

Philip Burke, son of the judge, received the award for his father who was in Washington on official business.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor, stated that "In my opinion Judge Burke is the finest example of what a Catholic layman should be."

MORE THAN 100 members and friends attended the breakfast. Judge Burke made the presentation. Alternates are Miss Josephine Kandy and Miss Joan Lusardi.

City Court Judge John P. Lomozo was principal speaker at the breakfast. He spoke on "Our American Heritage." David J. DuPre, first post commander, acted as toastmaster.

The past commander's pin was presented to William J. Silney. Guests included Paul Dolan, former state commander, and Ed

Indian Reds Claim Membership Gain

New Delhi, India - (NC) - The Indian Communist Party said its membership has grown to a record of 125,000 members.

According to Ajoy Kumar Ghosh, party general secretary, the new membership figure represents an increase of 35,000 in the past two years.
