Preparing the triumphal entrance into Jerusalem, Our Lord sent two of His Disciples into the village with careful instructions - "The first thing you will find upon entering will be a colt tethered, one on which no man has ever ridden, untie it, and bring it to Me. And If anyone asks you, Why are you doing that?, tell him, the Lord hath need of it, and he will not you have it without further ado."

Our Lord is a King claiming His authority over all creation and yet He borrows another's colt to enter Jerusalem. He borrowed a boat from which to preach; He borrowed barley loaves and fishes with which to feed the hungry; He borrowed a grave from Joseph of Armethea; He borrowed a night's lodging from Zacheus and a drink from the woman at the well. The only thing that was His Own? was the Cross. His justification for claiming property was: "The Lord hath need of it.

To apply His Redemption to all the peoples of the world, He has need of our possessions. Not our colts, but our superfluities, our juxuries. Our Lord wishes to enter into the hearts of the people of Nigeria, the Gold Coast, India, Durma, Japan and the Tonga Islands. But He cannot do so without your

If you wish anything to become precious, lend it to Jesus. It will come back to you with the sweet memory that His fingers have touched you. If you wish to get blessings out of your possessions, lay them at
