PETER AND PAUL

The Pastor and Bishop of Addi Final in Africa have implored Rome to help them. Since 1939 the people there have been in dire need of an adequate little place of worship. Nothing has yet been able to be accomplished. Poverty, drought, the Second World War, internal political conflict, and the premature death of the former Pastor have all militated against the project. The necessity for building is now greater than ever before. The people themselves have nothing and the authorities in desperation have APPEALED TO THE HOLY FATHER. $5,000 will build this Church which will be dedicated to SAINTS PETER and PAUL. Out of love for the Princes of the Apostles could you do something to relieve this tension? Our Holy Faith is at stake. Please send a RAY OF HOPE, won't you?

The Holy Father's Mission Aid

MARRIAGE IN CHRIST

Christian marriage is a way of finding God, and courtship is a way of finding a partner who will help one find God more easily, than one alone could find Him. "A husband or a wife who does not consider it the first duty to excite the other partner to love of God has no idea of WHAT MATRIMONY MEANS." Help emphasize the Christian Concept of Marriage by giving our young couples spiritual gifts. A MASS; a NOVENA of MASSES; a $1 ANNUAL or $20 PERPETUAL MEMBERSHIP; a DESIGNATED or STRINGLESS GIFT to the Near East Missions, so that the Bride and Groom may CO-SHARE in all the prayers and good works of our heroic Missionaries. We will send, in your name, a COLORFUL MULTI-TONED GIFT CARD.

MAKE YOUR WILL HIS WILL. REMEMBER THE GOOD LORD AND HIS NEAR EAST MISSIONS IN YOUR LAST WILL.

ADOPTED CHILDREN

..."As many as received Him, He gave them power to become the Sons of God." Through Baptism, we are all Brothers and Sisters of Christ, the Only-Begotten of the Father. We partake of the Divine Life of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our life is no longer just NATURAL but SUPERNATURAL. We have been ADOPTED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT. Out of heartfelt gratitude for this SPIRITUAL ADOPTION, could you ADOPT JOHN KADUKANMAKEL and JOHN MADAPATTU, Seminarians in India, who, like John the Baptist, are preparing the way. Each asks for a helping hand to pay his tuition, $400 in full or $100 a year for six years. Novices, ELIZABETH and ZACHARIA, of the Sisters of the Imitation of Christ, require $300 apiece complete, or $150 annually for their two-year training. They will bring forth Christ in the hearts of many and never forget you. Please ADOPT A SON OR DAUGHTER-IN-CHRIST.

A STRINGLESS GIFT IS YOUR GIFT CERTIFICATE TO THE HOLY FATHER.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS

"May the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus be praised, adored and loved, at every moment in all the Tabernacles of the world, even to the end of time." Could you afford to give a $25 TABERNACLE to one of our neediest Near East Missions? Many a grateful heart will be united to the Sacred Heart in prayerful petition for your intentions and in thanksgiving. Or perhaps you would like to give a $15 PICTURE or $30 STATUE of the Sacred Heart, broken out of love for us.

A SUSPENSE CARD PROVIDES MASSES AFTER DEATH

NEWLY-ORDAINED

June is the month of Ordinations. On many a Priestly Souvenir, Holy Card, one will read these words, "Bless all those who have led me to the Altar." You can lead our Seminarians in the Near and Middle East to the Altar by joining the CHRYSOSTOMS, our DOLLAR-A-MONTH Mission Club. Or in honor of the Sacred Heart of the Great High Priest just send us a little sacrifice.

Ready For Dance Recital

SPIRIT OF MISCHIEF will be portrayed by Sheila Bryan, 10, in a dance recital by the students of Miss Nan Heinrich scheduled for Sunday, June 24 at 2 p.m. in Our Lady of Mercy High School auditorium. Sheila is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Bryan, 111 Belhurst St., parishioners of St. Thomas Church, Irondequoit.

Priest First To Win Top Columbia Degree

New York — (NC) — Father John H. Harrington, librarian of the Archbishop Corrigan Memorial Library at St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie, New York, has been awarded the degree of Doctor of Library Science by Columbia University here.

This is the highest professional degree attainable in librarianship and is the first and only degree Columbia University has ever given in this field.

Father Harrington, who also holds the Batchelor's and Master's degrees in Library Science from Columbia, has been librarian of the Corrigan Library since 1946.

In 1951 Father Corrigan worked for a year at the Vatican Library as part of the specialist exchange program of the U.S. State Department.

Youth Leaders Hit Rock 'N Roll Music

Holyoke, Mass. — (RNS) — A New England regional meeting of Catholic Youth Organization directors here condemned rock 'n roll music as "pandering to the lower instincts."

It said the fad music also violates the canons of good taste and tends to lower the dignity of young people.

There was no dissenting comment among the clergymen and lay representatives of eight dioceses attending.

The unanimous opinion was that rock 'n roll contributes to moral delinquency and is "inconsistent with Catholic morality."

New York Playguide For Summer Vacation

Catholic News

A HATFUL OF RAIN — Strong, even painful drama of a young drug addict and his agonized family. Basic values are good, but the treatment is crude.

CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF—The raw, sensual outbursts of an abusive Southern clan, brutalized by guilt and fear.

DAMN YANKEES — Pennant-winning, big league musical with a Faustian abortionist pegging the devil out. Errors include two sultry numbers and a couple of dogmatic strikes.

DIARY OF ANNE FRANK — Lovely, intensely dramatic story of a young Jewish girl and her family forced to hide out from the Nazis.

FALLEN ANGELS — Flimsy, tiful comic sketch of two bored matrons on a binge. Features flippant acceptance of illicit love.

FANNY — Brazen disregard for Christian marital standards is the rule in this lavish but objectionable musical about the sterling French abortmongers.

INHERIT THE WIND—Powerful drama on famous evolution trial upholding a strictly liberal concept of academic freedom.

JANUS — Giddy comedy tolerantly smirking at marital infidelity.

MAN OF DESTINY — Some light Shavian cynicism as the young Napoleon is outmaneuvered by a wily feminine spy.

MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT — Pulp-magazine type tear-jerker of extra marital love notable for raw dialogue and distorted moral values.

MR. WONDERFUL — Cyclonic Sammy Davis, Jr., with the help of a catchy score, puts some pep into the old backstage routine.

MY FAIR LADY — Brilliant melodic adaptation of Shaw's comedy about the Cockney flower girl transformed by the proud professor of speech. Some low, broad humor in scenes with her ratlish father.

NO TIME FOR SERGEANTS — Much Army slapstick in this light-hearted farce about an amiable inductee with a genius for jinxing his officers.

PIPE DREAM—Fresh, singable Rodgers score mired in banal book glamorizing harlots.

THE DESK SET—Shirley Booth in the best of spirits as a likable librarian matching wits for her job with a formidable electronic brain.

THE ICEMAN COMETH — Sordid plot, persistent profanity and an underlying spirit of warped cynicism render objectionable this lengthy drama of barroom derelicts.

THE MATCHMAKER—Fast, clean and zany is the fun when an 1880 Yonkers tycoon sallies forth to Gotham to seek him a wife.

THE MOST HAPPY FELLA—Superior adult musical about a May-December marriage jeopardized by an illicit affair. A few lapses in taste, but handling of delicate main theme shows artistic restraint.

THE PAJAMA GAME — Bright and breezy factory musical unnecessarily cheapened by touches of shoddy humor.

THE PONDER HEART — Despite a curious slant on "trial marriage," an engaging play about a whimsical Southern Santa, with one of the funniest courtroom scenes on record.

THE LITTLEST REVIEW — Some mildly risible skits but the humor is rarely spotless.

THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM — A grimy, lurid case history, details the degradation of a cardsharp addicted to drugs.

THREE TIMES THREE — A trio of one-act plays, including a bawdy, indecent, 16th Century triangle farce.

UNCLE VANYA — Chekhov's rueful comedy of self-made failures performed with spirit and skill.

WILL SUCCESS SPOIL ROCK HUNTER — Farcical satire on Hollywood loaded with offensive humor.

CATHOLIC SUMMER THEATRE—St. Michael's Playhouse of St. Michael's College, Winooski, Vt. opens its tenth season this summer on July 10 with a production of "Father of the Bride." Resident stock company is Players Incorporated of Catholic University. Other plays offered during the summer include: "Dial M For Murder," "My Sister Eileen," "Late George Apley," "The Rainmaker," and "You Can't Take It With You."

Enthusiasm In Religion Urged By Chicago Prelate

Dubuque — (NC) — A "holy discontent" remains concerning the results of the Catholic educational program, His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, said here.

Speaking at the dedication of the seminary at the Dominican Priory of St. Rose of Lima, the Cardinal declared that "we know we have failed in giving our schools the whole great vision of revealed truth as taught by Holy Church."

The new seminary will serve Dominican scholastics from the Province of St. Albert the Great which covers the Central and Mountain states.

"In all our schools there is diligent teaching of religion and a training in Catholic life which is apparent in the life of the Church in our country," the Cardinal said.

"OUR PEOPLE can answer the questions of the catechism," he continued. 'Many have a profounder knowledge of their religion."

But why is it," the Cardinal asked, "that there is not greater holy enthusiasm for Holy Church in our Catholic people? They will enter wholeheartedly in any program of Catholic Action given them. They participate in our national genius for organization. They will sacrifice themselves for the Church. But they have not the full fire of charity which makes the ardent lover so enthused for his loved one that spontaneously he showers his gifts."

"Take a look at this fact in our Catholic life," the Cardinal said. "How few are our converts. What influence are we exerting to remove occasions of sin from the path of youth? Corner newsstands will give the answer. We are working, yes, but how meager the results. In the field of literature and profound scholarship our influence is not great."

In conclusion the Cardinal said "our schools mean nothing unless they are the exercise of the Teaching Office of the Church. The very foundation on which they rest is the divine mandate given to the Church to teach all men."

Cardinal Stritch added that theology must permeate students from the kindergarten to the university and it is in this sense that seminaries and houses of theological studies form a very part of the pastoral office entrusted to the Church.

Colleges Set Courses To Aid Handicapped

Washington — (NC) — More than 20 Catholic colleges and universities are offering courses for teachers of handicapped children this summer and many more are featuring informal workshops, a tally has shown.

Father William F. Jenks, C.SS.R., associate secretary in charge of special education for the National Catholic Educational Association, announced the figure and expressed pleasure with what he called "the large increase in recent years" in the number of training opportunities for teachers of such children.

Father Jenks, who offers his own summer workshop at the Catholic University of America here on mental health and special education, said most of the courses will train teachers for children who do not need to be institutionalized.

These children constitute the "vast majority" of exceptional youngsters, he said, adding that "they should be kept in the family circles and allowed to attend their parochial school with their brothers and sisters and playmates."

Most of them can be taught in the ordinary parochial schools by teachers who have taken courses in the "special education" field, he explained. Or, in some cases, they can attend special day classes held in conjunction with the parochial school's day.

Red Movie House Now Korea Church

Inje, Korea — (NC) — Confirmation was administered here in a new red brick church that was converted from a Communist movie house and indoctrination center.

The former structure was called the North Korean Communist building. It was damaged during the 1950-52 fighting in Korea and was rebuilt into a church last year by Inje's first pastor, Columban Father John Lynch.

Confirmation was administered by Bishop Thomas Quinlan, Vicar Apostolic of Chunchon and Regent of the Apostolic Delegation to Korea. Bishop Quinlan travelled more than 1,000 miles by jeep and confirmed about 1,000 persons in the 16 parishes of his vicarate.
