REV. CHRISTIAN SCHEMBRI

Capuchin Known In Diocese Sent To Guam Mission

The Rev. Christian Schembri, O.F.M., Cap., of St. Fidelis Friary, Interlaken, N. Y., has been assigned to the mission of Guam, Marianas Islands. During the past year, Father Christian has conducted missions, retreats and novenas in Canada and the Eastern States including this diocese.

Father Christian is a member of the Saint Fidelis Mission Band of the Capuchin - Franciscan Province of New York.

THE MARIANAS are a group of 17 islands 5,000 miles west of San Francisco. Guam, the largest of the group, is only 30 miles long and 8 miles wide. Its 40,000 natives are 95% Catholic. Other islands of the group are Saipan, Rota, and Tinian. Bishop Apollinaris Baumgartner, O.F.M. Cap., is Vicar Apostolic of the Islands.

The Capuchin Fathers established the friary at Interlaken, in 1851. Since that time they have been engaged in various apostolic works in our diocese; such as, preaching, assisting in parishes, and serving as chaplains to hospitals.

The Very Rev. Gereon Lindsay, O.F.M. Cap., is Superior of the friary and pastor of the Interlaken Church.

5000 Religious In Red Slave Camps

London — (RNS) — A Vatican Radio broadcast said that some 5,000 Roman Catholic priests and nuns are now serving terms at forced labor camps in Communist Czechoslovakia.

Cathedral Rites For Marilyn Karp

Funeral services for Miss Marilyn C. Karp, secretary of the Arthur Bamann and Sons, Inc., insurance firm, were conducted at Mattles', 300 Cumberland St. and at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Thursday, July 5.

Miss Karp, 25, of 570 Seneca Parkway was a victim of the flash storm on Lake Ontario, July 1, during which the sailboat in which she was riding with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Bamann, Jr. and William F. Bamann capsized. Mr. Arthur J. Bamann, Jr. to whom Miss Karp was secretary was rescued. Bodies of Mrs. Bamann and William F. are still being sought at this writing.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Alphonse Malone, C.S.B., assisted by the Rev. Vincent Eckert, C.S.B., Deacon and the Rev. Joseph A. O'Reilly, C.S.B. as Subdeacon. Mass responses were sung by Basilian scholastics.

In the Sanctuary also were His Excellency, Auxiliary Bishop Casey; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Maynard Connell and the Reverend Fathers Ernest P. Magee, C.S.B., James W. Embser, C.S.B.; John Poluikis, C.S.B.; John R. Whitley, C.S.B.; Roger F. de Billy, C.S.B.; D. Darcy Bolger, Charles Principe, C.S.B., Raymond L. Prince, C.S.B., Charles L. McCarthy, Joseph J. Abend, C.S.B.; Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., John T. Conway, C.S.B., Robert M. Fischette, C.S.B., Joseph Reinhart, Elmer J. Schmidt, Vincent Le Frois, Michael C. Hogan, Edwin R. Wedow and Francis J. Taylor.

Miss Karp is survived by her mother, Mrs. Irene K. Karp, secretary at Aquinas Institute; a sister, Mrs. Robert E. Meagher; a niece and a nephew, several aunts and an uncle.

Bearers were William Loritz, Richard Wollensak, Jack Karp, Donald Mitchell, Harold Heberger and Eugene Robinson.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final blessing was imparted by Bishop Casey.

Cornerstone Laid For New Convent

Marie Curry, State CDA Leader, Dies

Known widely in the Diocese of Rochester because of many appearances at Catholic Daughters of America functions, Miss Marie C. Curry, of Bellerose, Long Island, a national director and New York State Regent died in Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, Ore. of a cerebral hemorrhage on July 7, 1956.

MARIE C. CURRY

Miss Curry was attending a directors meeting in Portland preceding the organization's national convention when stricken on July 4. She was found in her hotel room by Mrs. Irene Haviland, Long Branch, N. J., a travelling companion.

In May of this year, Miss Curry presided at the 25th biennial state convention of the CDA held at Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira. During her term as state regent from 1943 to now she had taken part in local court activities in various sections of the diocese.

One of Miss Curry's principal contributions to the work of the Catholic Daughters of America in New York state was the organization of a "seminarian fund" through which the Archbishops and Bishops of the five dioceses in New York received financial aid for the training of students for the priesthood. Almost $106,000 has been given for this purpose.

His Holiness Pope Pius XII awarded Miss Curry the papal medal Pro Ecclesia at Pontifice in 1948.

Archbishop Thomas E. Molloy, Bishop of Brooklyn, was scheduled to preside at the funeral Mass at St. Gregory's Church, Bellerose. Archbishop Molloy is state chaplain for the Catholic Daughters of America in New York.

KC Chapter Elects 4 From Diocese

Four Knights of Columbus from the Rochester diocese were elected to offices in the Central New York Chapter of the order at the K. of C. Home in Cortland, last Sunday.

Delegates from 24 councils in central New York attended. Supreme Director William E. Burke of Utica was a speaker. Thomas J. Parks of Rome was elected chairman to succeed William Hendricks of Cortland. Joseph B. Wallace of Utica is the new vice chairman.

Named to offices were these four from councils in this diocese: State Lecturers' Committee Chairman John J. Kinney of Rochester, treasurer; William C. Richard Coleman, Waverly, Joslyn, East Rochester, warden; side guard, and John Ager, Auburn, outside guard.

Sister St. Luke Services Conducted At Motherhouse

Solemn Requiem Mass was held for Sister M. St. Luke Wiegand of the Sisters of St. Joseph on Wednesday, July 11 in Nazareth Motherhouse Chapel, Pittsford.

Sister St. Luke died Monday, July 9, 1956.

Celebrant of the Mass was the Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, chaplain of Nazareth Motherhouse. He was assisted by the Rev. Conrad Sundholm, deacon, and the Rev. Roy B. Morphy, subdeacon.

Present in the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Monsignors Louis Edelman and Joseph H. Gefell and the Rev. George M. Kalb.

Blessing at the grave was given by the Rev. Austin Hanna assisted by Monsignor Gefell.

Sister St. Luke entered the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1892 from the old Cathedral parish. An artist, she was first assigned to Nazareth Academy and then to former St. Agnes Institute, E. Main St., where she instructed in art for more than 30 years.

In 1943, Sister St. Luke was appointed to St. Joseph Hospital, Elmira, where she continued in art work for some time before her retirement.

Surviving is a nephew, Arthur Wiegard of Rochester.

26th Anniversary Marked By Sisters At Holy Angels Home

In thanksgiving to God for the graces and benefits He has given Holy Angels Home for girls, 1326 Winton Road North, since its foundation in 1930, a Mass was celebrated by a Basilian Father in the Monastery chapel, July 9.

Observing the 26th anniversary of their coming to Rochester, the Sisters of Our Lady of Refuge of Charity and girls now in the Home also enjoyed a "treat."

Continued response to the Monastery Fund appeal brought these excerpts from letters:

"Enclosed find check for $5.00 toward your Building Fund, in thanksgiving for favor received. . ."

"A committee of women and boys helped me sell tickets and we raffled off an Infant of Prague Statue to earn this money for you ($88.35) God bless you and all the Sisters. . ."

"Here is $3.50 of my own money which I want you to have for your Building Fund," (from a 13 year old girl).

"Wish this $50.00 was a hundred times more than it is. We are very grateful to you for the many prayers you have said for us to obtain God's blessing on our family."

Missouri Lutherans Seek 10,000 Teachers

St. Paul — (RNS) — Some 10,000 new teachers will be needed by 1965 for parochial schools of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, it was reported at the denomination's national convention here.

An estimated 2,000 will be required for additional classrooms and 8,000 for replacements.

St. Joseph HNS Maps Picnic

Installation of officers and planning for the parish picnic took place at the July Communion Breakfast of St. Joseph's Holy Name Society held in the parish hall.

Seated in office by the Rev. Paul Laicher, C.SS.R. were the following: Theodore Mueller, president and Anthony Santelli, reelected; Alphonse De Yaeger, secretary; James Cantella, Sr., treasurer; Martin Hynes, Al Mura, Fred Leiber, marshals; John M. Roth, breakfast marshal; Liborio Rozzi and Walter Bayer, delegates.

The Holy Name men will join with the Archconfraternity of the Holy Family in sponsoring the parish outing, Sunday, July 15 at Ellison Park. Chairmen, the presidents of the societies are Theodore Meueller and Miss Mary Reichert.

Transportation will be provided from the bus line to the picnic grounds, it was announced.
