Zollo Designs Settings For Outdoor Drama

Members of the audience at tonight's (Friday) performance of Catholic Theatre's "Murder in the Cathedral" production on the Nazareth College campus will see both scenery and costumes based on authentic medieval design by artist Carl Zollo.

Scenes of the two-act verse play by T. S. Eliot take place in the exterior and interior of the medieval cathedral of canterbury.

ACCORDING TO Zollo, art director of Rochester's Station WVET-TV, the basic architecture of the college was the starting point for the scenic design.

Fabric materials, such as banners and drapes, were used instead of painted scenery. Although the setting is modernized in construction to facilitate movement, the art work is completely in the style of the Middle Ages.

CARL ZOLLO

Costumes for the production were designed and executed by Miss Callista Esterguard.

Overtures

Showing Respect For Our Lord In His House

Do people still indicate that they know Christ is present there at the altar, and that the church is therefore His House? Sadly, some forget, but there are some who don't, as these candid pictures prove.

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS is, in this context, the equivalent of a tip of the hat. Both are tokens of recognition.

THE OLDER GENERATION seems to remember its courtesy best. Younger men are apt to be hatless—or thoughtless.

BOWING THE HEAD to say a quick prayer brings a special blessing to the lunch hour shopping rush.

IT'S A SIMPLE GESTURE to touch the hat. The thought behind the gesture is what matters.

Shrine Rites To Recall Work Of Father Baker

Exercises marking the 20th anniversary of the death of the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. Nelson H. Baker, superintendent of Our Lady of Victory Institutions and builder of the world-famed National Shrine and Basilica of Our Lady of Victory, Lackawanna, will be held Saturday, July 28.

Many thousands of friends of Father Baker in Buffalo, Lackawanna, and along the Niagara Frontier, as well as persons of all nationalities and creeds throughout Western New York, Ontario, Pennsylvania and Ohio are expected to be present to honor the man who is regarded by many as the "American St. Vincent de Paul."

FATHER BAKER

Services will consist of a solemn requiem Mass in the shrine and basilica at 10 a.m. during which the traditional sermon on the life of Father Baker will be given. After Mass a procession to the grave of "The Padre of the Poor" in Holy Cross cemetery adjoining the institutions, will be made. During the procession the rosary will be recited aloud by all making the pilgrimage.

At grave-side a short prayer service will be conducted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph E. Maguire, immediate successor to Father Baker and pastor of the shrine and basilica, and Very Rev. Joseph M. McPherson, superintendent of Our Lady of Victory Institutions.

After services at the grave, there will be "open house" at all Father Baker homes, during the afternoon and early evening, Msgr. McPherson advises.

Father Baker was born in Buffalo on Feb. 16, 1841, and was ordained a priest, March 19, 1876, by the Most Rev. Stephen V. Ryan, D.D., second Bishop of Buffalo. He was 35 years old at the time of his ordination. With the exception of 11 months, Father Baker spent his entire priestly life among his "boys and babies" in Lackawanna. He died July 29, 1936, at the age of 95, in Our Lady of Victory Hospital, an institution he planned and erected in 1919. He is buried in the same plot that contains his father and mother. His grave is visited by increasing thousands each year.

This year marks the 115th anniversary of Father Baker's birth, the 80th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, the 30th anniversary of the dedication of the National Shrine and Basilica of Our Lady of Victory, his last great work; 20th anniversary of his death in 1936.

THE HARD WAY. Out in busy downtown traffic this young messenger takes his hand off the handlebar to make a sign of the Cross.

Library Features Books On History Of Vatican City

Numerous books about the Vatican and the Popes are being featured at the Rochester Public Library according to Librarian Harold S. Hacke. Included among these are the following:

One of the most recent volumes on the subject is Zsolt Aradi's The Popes which gives the complete story of how Popes are chosen, elected and crowned. The Pageant of the Popes, by John Farrow, is an historical account of all of the Popes, from Peter, the first of the pontiffs, to Pius XII.

The organization, customs and way of life of the Vatican is described in Jean Neuvecelle's recent book, The Vatican. An older book, The Vatican: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow, by George Seldes, is also an excellent account of the history, influence and customs of the Vatican.

The organization structure of the Roman Catholic Church is explained in Elizabeth Lynskey's The Government of the Catholic Church. Other recent books on the Catholic Church include A Popular History of the Catholic Church, by Philip Hughes; What Is Catholicity?, by Paul Hallett, and Credo: A Practical Guide to the Catholic Faith, by Martin Harrison.

A number of biographies of Pope Pius XII are also available at the library. They include Pius XII: The Life and Work of a Great Pope, by Pierre Pfister; Eugenio Pacelli: Pope of Peace, by Oskar Halecki, and Keeper of the Keys, by Thomas McDermott.

Catholic Hour Lists Interview On TV

FATHER LaFARGE

The Catholic Hour will present "Close-Up," a series of conversations with four outstanding Catholic personalities in public affairs, the arts and literature for its August TV programs on NBC.

The four-program series, which starts Aug. 5, will be viewed in the Rochester area over WHAM-TV from 4 to 4:30 p.m. Program will feature Father John LaFarge, S.J., Andre Girard, Father Philip Hughes and Paul Horgan.

The Catholic Hour series is produced by the National Council of Catholic Men.

Music Course Required In School

St. Louis — (NC) — Music will be a required course for all freshmen and sophomores in the Catholic high schools of the Archdiocese of St. Louis this fall. The music courses eventually will be required for all students.

Sister M. Harriet, supervisor of music for the School Sisters of Notre Dame, was one of the teachers who helped prepare the music syllabus. She emphasized that boys and girls are constantly exposed to all types of music over the radio and television. "If we don't educate them to know good music when they hear it, who will?" she inquired.

Loyola Granted TV License

Washington, D. C. — (RNS)— The Federal Communications Commission announced grant of a license to Loyola University for a new major television station at New Orleans, La.

The commission chose the application submitted by the Jesuit-operated school over that submitted by the New Orleans Times-Picayune and former Louisiana Governor James A. Noe.
