Local Knights To Hear Report On Convention

Delegates from Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John will report at commandery meetings on resolutions adopted at the 50th annual Knights of St. John Convention held in Dayton, Ohio, according to Colonel Emill G. Eckert.

A resolution urging Congress and the State legislatures to allow parents to consider tuition payments for private elementary and secondary education as tax deductible was approved.

OTHER RESOLUTIONS called for strengthening Sunday closing laws, cleaning up pornographic literature at military camps, self-policing of "comics and movies which appeal to man's passions," and the establishment of Good Friday as a legal holiday.

A highlight of the convention was the presentation of a check for $5,000 to the Catholic Church Extension Society, which has headquarters in Chicago to further the society's work in building mission chapels in the United States and its possessions.

Meeting at the same time, the women's auxiliary of the Knights announced that a donation of $10,000 had been presented to the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington for a rose window.

Elected to national offices were: Mr. Keim, Dayton, Ohio, supreme president; Peter J. Schurz, Buffalo, first vice president; Leo H. Bender, Akron, Ohio, second vice president; and Andrew O. Zink, Detroit, treasurer.

Judge Convented Sukabumi, Indonesia - (NC) Judge Gustaf A. Maengkom, noted jurist of this nation, was received into the Catholic Church before his death here.

Fr. Bonn To Investigate Conn. Prison Conditions

The Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J., of Fairfield University, Conn. who has visited the Rochester area frequently as retreat master and lecturer was named by Governor Abraham

Ribicoff to a five-member committee of citizens to make an "unrestricted" investigation of all conditions and administration at Connecticut State Prison in Wethersfield.

The investigation of the prison is the result of a sit-down strike of 300 inmates last Friday.

Ribicoff said the committee would meet with him at the Capitol Thursday of this week to get its investigation started and will have a free hand and a broad scope in its study.

Father Bonn, professor of English and Latin at Fairfield has had a special interest in penology for many years and has delivered many lectures on the subject throughout the nation.

Father Bonn was ordained to the priesthood in 1935 after studying Theology at Weston College.

In Rochester he has lectured at Nazareth College and conducted retreats at the Cenacle Convent.
