Curriculum In Our Schools Planned

PLANS FOR PERFECTING and refining the curriculum of Catholic elementary schools in five dioceses of New York State are being outlined at this meeting of the Curriculum Committee in Wadhams Hall, Ogdensburg. Rt. Rev. Magr. Arthur M. Leary, Ogdensburg, (third from left) is director of the Curriculum Committee representing the dioceses of Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and Ogdensburg in the education field. Other committee members in Ogdensburg, July 25 to 27 are: (from left): Rev. Leo Hammerl, assistant superintendent of education, Buffalo; Rev. Donald Hughes, assistant superintendent, Buffalo; Monsignor Leary; Rev. Floyd Brown, secretary of education, Ogdemaburg; Rev. John Bourke, superintendent, Albany; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles V. Boyle, superintendent Rochester: Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Callaghan, superintendent, Syracuse; and Rt. Rev. Msgr. Sylvester Holbel, superintendent, Buffalo. In naming Monsignor Leary as Director, a new post, the committee announced that this former position as Executive Secretary will be filled at a later date.
