ST. JOACHIM

Outdoor Statue Of St. Joachim To Be Dedicated

Parishioners of St. Joachim's Church, Canisteo, will honor their patron saint at outdoor rites on his feast day, Thursday, August 16, at 5:30 p.m.

A newly constructed shrine with a statue of St. Joachim will be blessed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Lawrence W. Cannon, dean of the Steuben deanery.

A High Mass at the new shrine will be celebrated by Father Joseph Haffey, pastor of St. Joachim's.

Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor emeritus of St. Aloysius Church, Auburn, will preach the sermon.

The new statue of St. Joachim is believed to be the only one of its kind in the entire diocese.

Men of the parish have aided the pastor in erecting the shrine located between the church and rectory on Canisteo's West Main Street.

St. Joachim's was founded in 1880 as a mission of St. Ann's, Hornell. Along with St. Mary's, Rexville, the three parishes honor the Blessed Virgin and her parents, Joachim and Ann.

Little is actually known about St. Joachim except the fact that he was the father of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Father Haffey said, "This new shrine in the quiet valley of Steuben County's Canisteo River, will foster a devotion to the saint whom Mary honored as her own father and will serve as a constant encouragement for more devout family life in the homes of Canisteo's parishioners."
