

Catholic College Program Mapped By Area Alumni

Corning.—An unique Catholic college education program, planned to be held in Corning this Fall, will be discussed at an open meeting of the newly organized Catholic College Alumni Council at the Baron Steuben Hotel in Corning at 8:30 P.M. Tuesday, August 14.

Priest Urges Mao To Free Prisoners
Cincinnati (NC)—A moving plea for the release of American still held prisoner in Red China has been written by Mao Te-Tung by a veteran Chinese missionary priest.

Mentioning his 16 years service to the Chinese people, Father Nicholas Schneiders, C.P., asked the Red China leader to keep his promise made a year ago concerning the prisoners in China. At that time Mao said his government would release the prisoners.

Father Schneiders said that millions of people are pleading with God for those who suffer in China. He urged Mao to release the prisoners and thus "win the gratitude of your fellow men."

Catechetical Center Rises

WORKMEN are shown carrying on construction of the new Catechetical Instruction Building in Assumption Parish, Fairport on the Balmer Place site in that village adjacent to the just completed public school. Convent facilities will be installed in the building, top photo, to left. Lower photo shows close up of work on the two-story structure. Three classrooms will be provided, it is planned. Classes are to be taught by the Rev. Leonard Kelly, pastor; the Rev. Vincent Collins, assistant pastor and Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart.

Named Auxiliary
Vatican City (NC)—Pope Pius XII has named Father Jose P. da Silva Auxiliary Bishop to Cardinal Goncalves Cerejeira, Patriarch of Lisbon.

Dedication Day Rites Listed At Mt. Saviour Monastery

Final plans for dedication day at Mount Saviour Monastery were formulated at a meeting Sunday, August 5, attended by Elmira and Corning area friends of the monastery. This special day of thanksgiving will be observed on August 19, the Sunday nearest the Feast of the Assumption. On this feastday in 1853, the chapel was blessed and dedicated to Our Lady, Queen of Peace, and the first Mass celebrated there.

In conformity to the family spirit which is so characteristic of Benedictine monasticism, the day's activities have been planned to meet the needs of the entire family. After the Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving at 9 a.m., breakfast will be served in the refectory of St. Joseph House. Light refreshments will also be obtainable throughout the day.

BOY SCOUTS from St. Casimir Church, under the direction of Scoutmaster Joseph Gaylan, will operate a "fish pond" for the children, and serve as guides for those unacquainted with the monastery grounds. Ladies of the St. Scholastica League will offer needlework and bake items for the benefit of the monastery.

The newest addition to Mount Saviour, St. Joseph House, will be open for inspection all day. This building, constructed almost entirely by the monks, contains 15 cells, refectory, kitchen and library, as well as utility and store rooms. At 3 p.m. the formal blessing and benediction of St. Joseph House will take place.

VESPERS, a candlelit procession to the crypt of Our Lady, Queen of Peace, and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will be at 4 p.m. and the day's activities will conclude at 5 p.m., when the prizes are awarded.

General cochairmen are Alex Kosty of Corning and Phillip Rosati of Elmira. They will be assisted by the following committee members: Mrs. Frank Belligotti, Mrs. George Bragg, Mrs. Margaret Coe, Mrs. Robert Chely, and Mrs. George Cinnell.

Mrs. Edward Claus, Mrs. John Cloke, Miss Mae V. Crowley, Mrs. Margaret Dowling, Mrs. Anthony Ekes, Mrs. Edward Frawley, Mrs. Daniel Kennedy, Mrs. John Lepkowski, Mrs. James Mallon, Mrs. Walter O'Brien, Mrs. Joseph O'Neil, Mrs. James Pufford, Mrs. Anna Miller, Mrs. Francis Rohde, Mrs. Harold Fisher, Miss Shirley Frost, Miss Ann Frost, Mrs. Samuel Frost, Mrs. Raymond Frost, Miss Betty Gals and Miss Anne Manocchio.

Also assisting will be Francis Rohde, Thomas Cerio, Clifford Benedict, Harold Fisher, and Gwladys.

Those needing transportation are asked to contact a member of the committee and suitable arrangements will be made.

Innocent XI Beatification Expected On October 21

Vatican City (NC)—L'Osservatore Romano, Vatican City daily, announced that "it is fairly probable" that the beatification of Innocent XI will be held on October 21.

The beatification, earlier scheduled for October 7, will take place in the month dedicated to the Holy Rosary. It will serve to recall the memory of the pious and courageous savior of Europe from the onslaught of the invaders, L'Osservatore said.

Innocent XI was pope during the last years of the 17th century. During his pontificate Vienna was saved from Moslem invaders, and Christian Europe was relieved of the Basilians Slate Culture Series At Assumption U.

His Excellency Bishop Fulton J. Sheen for the 22nd time will open the original Christian Culture Series of lectures and concerts which are held in Detroit and Windsor under the auspices of Assumption University of Windsor, the Basilian Fathers announce.
