DOINGS AT THE DALY'S Markie Decides AS MANY OF my readers know for many years I was associated with newspaper work. Since all of the big city papers came into the newsroom and I was accustomed to glance through them, I was dimly aware that there was a dramatic or theatrical column in one of the tabloids, written by a man named Ed Sullivan.

Blue and white striped uniforms. White oxfords. White stockings. Clothes bag, shoe bag. Watch, with sweep second hand. These and many other items comprise Markie's shopping list during the late summer days of shopping that is done mostly on her lunch hour while on an office job.

And, after work and on Saturdays, she is making her way down a list like this: Typhoid inoculation. Smallpox vaccination. Diphtheria immunization. Tuberculin test. Dental check-up. These and a lot more mean twice-a-week visits to the physician's and dentist's offices, a left arm that is stiff and sore, a knee a bit on the sensitive side.

Not altogether to our surprise, we find that such sports are included in the training program, which, please God, she will take in a few weeks. In the questionnaire, "Why do you want to become a nurse?" Markie truthfully set forth her reasons. It would be an invasion of privacy to print them here.

AMONG WOMEN A Questionable Cause

By Mary Lennon Snyder In the last tale in "The Idylls of the King" Tennyson tells us the story of "The Passing of Arthur", and in it he contrasts the dismal ending of the king's story with the bright promise of his coming.

By, some of the church people are wondering why they should endeavor their facilities for youth work when the Ford Motor Co. and Ed Sullivan can present for the nation's plaudits a person who deserted her husband, her child and her adopted country and went off to Italy to bear a child to a native of that country a few days before they married.

"Let him who is without sin cast the first stone." Is sound teaching, but certainly it has little application in this case. Eergman, because of her prominence and the vast rewards she reaped from her American audiences, had a double responsibility to the country of her adoption.

IN A RECENT column inez Robb quoted a newspaper editorial which says in part: "Local Pope Lauds KC Ad Campaign Detroit - (RNS) - A message from Pope Pius XII praising the Knights of Columbus for its eighty-year-old campaign to advertise the Roman Catholic faith was received at the opening of the fraternal organization's 74th annual supreme convention here.

Miss Mary Daly, 35 Sco Street, is the author of the column. She is a nurse and a writer. She is also a member of the Knights of Columbus. She is a native of the United States and has lived in Italy for several years.
