Ad Campaign

Detroit - (RNS) - A message from Pope Plus XII praising the Knights of Columbus for its eight-year-old campaign to advertise the Roman Catholie faith was received at the opening of the fraternal organization's 74th annual supreme convention here.

Read by Supreme Knight Luke E. Hart of St. Louis, Mo, the Pope's message was through Msgr. Angelo 'Acqua, Substitute for Ordinary Affairs in the Vatican Secretariat of State.

"The Holy Father," the Vatican prelate wrote, "has been pleased to learn that the "Catholic Advertising Program,' sponsored by you already for many years with notable success, has been extended beyond the boundaries of the United States to Canada, Mexico and Cuba, and is reaching, with its information concerning the Church, and, catechetical, instructions through the press and individual correspondence, an ever wider and more numerous public."
