ARNOLD'S PAINT & WALLPAPER 279 Hudson Ave. BA 9124 Doors That Open To Faith . .

Throughout the Scriptures and the writings of the saints, Catholics find the word "door" used Saturday, Aug. 25 — Anthony in psalm and parable to explain articles of Faith.

A well-known painting demonstating Our Lord's words "Knock Sunday, Aug. 26 - Lay repre- and it shall be opened to you," sentative, Holy Trinity, Webster, shows Christ tapping at a door accompanied by members of the representing the heart of the unbeliever.

In the Litany of Loreto we call Our Blessed Mother the Tuesday, Aug 28 - Joseph "Janua Coeli," the gate or door of heaven.

THE DOOR HAS become a natural symbol to the Catholic and particular doors lead him to the fullness of Faith.

Through the church door, he is carried as an infant to be baptized and freed from original sin. In death, he is taken through the church door for the last time to a final resting place.

Behind the door of the confessional he receives the Sacrament of Penance, is relieved of punishment due his sins and given spiritual counsel.

The door of the Catholic school opens the way to a training in the truths of the Faith and a preparation for the world. Monastery and convent doors offer a life of sacrifice dedicated wholly to Christ, the answer to His call "Come, follow Me."

Retreat House doors invite the layman to a period of thought and meditation away from the world, an opportunity to review his spiritual life.

Behind the tabernacle door, the Divine Prisoner always awaits Catholics in the Sacrament of the
