Bath—Dedication of the Christ the King Ukrainian Catholic Church took place here Sunday morning with a Solemn High Divine Liturgy being celebrated during the ceremonies.

Monsignor Nicholas Bahak of the Byzantine Diocese officiated at the ceremonies for the new church, whose pastor is the Rev. Anthony Kuczmarski.

The Rev. John S. Hayes, chaplain at the Bath Veterans Administration here and the Rev. Henry C. Manley, pastor of St. Mary Church, also attended the ceremonies.

CONSTRUCTION of the church was begun in 1953 and was recently completed. The parish consists of 16 families, most of whom came to the United States to escape Communist oppression after the last war.

Congressman Sterling Cole and Dr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Smith were among prominent Bath citizens who attended the dedication.

A banquet and concert took place following dedication ceremonies at 1:30, after which there was a picnic and dance at 3:30 p.m. at the Bath Rod & Gun Club.

Church In Ecuador Built With Aid Of City Woman

A new church in Ecuador has been constructed with the aid of a $1,000 fund set aside in the will of a Rochester woman according to Bishop Bernardine, O.F.M., of Ambato, Ecuador.

Arrangements for carrying out the bequest were made by the Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, then diocesan director of the Propagation of the Faith.

THE $1,000 fund was provided by the will of Miss Estelle Walzer of Blessed Sacrament Parish, who died Aug. 23, 1949.

Decision to contribute the fund toward the erection of a church in Ecuador followed an appeal from Bishop Bernardine for aid in rebuilding the earthquake-torn churches of that area. Catholic

Trapp Family Group Now Incorporated

Montpelier, Vt. (NC)—The Trapp Family of Stowe, Vt., nationally known singers, has been granted a charter by Secretary of State Howard E. Armstrong to extend its musical education and school program under the name, Cor Unum, Inc.

This Latin term, meaning one heart, is also the name of the Trapp homestead. There the new corporation will establish and operate "a school, education and training facilities in general, professional, technical and cultural arts."

The Trapp Family, which has discontinued its concert tours, came to the United States to escape persecution in Europe. Maria Trapp, mother of the group, was honored as Catholic Mother of 1856 by the National Catholic Conference on Family Life.

Temporary Quarters Occupied By Bank

Community Savings Bank opened for business in temporary quarters at 29 Clinton Ave. S., diagonally across the street from the Main and Clinton site.

More than 700 pieces of equipment were transferred. Included were posting machines, safes, calculators, coin counting machines, photocopiers, and all the equipment necessary to operate the savings and mortgage departments, and the executive offices. Biggest phase of the operation was the transfer of 17 teller units which were dismantled and then reassembled in the temporary location.

The only department still remaining in the old building is the safe-deposit department which is scheduled to be moved over the Sept. 7 weekend. Safe deposit service to customers will be maintained at the Main and Clinton location until 8 p. m. on Friday, Sept. 7.
