Dominican Third Order members will hold their first meeting of the fall season Sunday, Sept. 9, at Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St., Rochester, at 3:30 p.m.

Following last year's introductory study of the psalms of vespers and compline, this year's conferences will be based on the historical origins of the Dominican Order, Father Henry Atwell, chapter director, has announced.

Purpose of the Third Order, he explained, is to aid lay people in spiritualizing their daily tasks in accordance with the spirit and rules laid down by St. Dominic, famous 13th century missionary.

Those interested in obtaining details of the Third Order program are invited to attend Sunday's meeting or contact the director at 35 Scio St., Rochester.

3 Sets Of Twins Enrolled Among 250 Owego Pupils

By HELEN A. BROSNAN

Owego — An enrollment of more than 250, including that of three sets of twins in the first grade, is facing the teachers of St. Patrick School.

Sister Mary Pierre, principal, and teacher of the seventh and eighth grades, states that any more new enrollments will have to be placed on a waiting list.

Sister M. Vincentia newly appointed to St. Patrick's, will teach the First grade with an enrollment of 45 youngsters. Sister M. Melchioria, will preside over the second and third grades and Sister M. James Edward will teach the third and fourth grades.

Sister N. Rosalie, another Nun newly appointed to St. Patrick's will teach the fifth and sixth grades. Sister M. James Edward is a former member of St. Patrick's Parish, being the former Gertrude Skelly, daughter of Mrs. William Skelly, Lake St., and the late Mr. Skelly. This year's enrollment is about thirty above that of last September, that being 220.

Holy Name Plans Made

Owego — Plans for the Fall and Winter activities of the Holy Name Society were made at the first Fall meeting, held Wednesday evening, Sept. 5, in St. Patrick Parish Hall.

The business session will be conducted by Walter J. O'Connell, Sr., who was elected at the June meeting, to succeed V. Robert Simpson, who had served as president two years. Next Sunday, Sept. 9, will be the regular monthly Communion for members.

Massachusetts, Painted Post Weddings Held

Corning—Two weddings of interest to area Catholics took place last Saturday morning—one in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Painted Post and the other in Webster, Mass.

Painted Post — The Rev. Harold F. Rogers performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated Nuptial Mass in the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary at Painted Post, when Miss Kathleen Marie Dailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Dailey of 140 West Water St., Painted Post, became the bride of John Edward Roman of Chicago, Ill.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ronan, 1734 East 71st Place, Chicago.

Serving the Mass were Steve and Tom Maloney, cousins of the bride. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Joseph Frick, organist.

Miss Patricia Dailey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The three bridesmaids were Miss Susan Cheney and Miss Linda Niles, both of Painted Post, and Mrs. Michael R. Gorman of East Syracuse, sister of the bride. Kathy Lou Gorman was flower girl for her aunt.

Martin Ronan of Chicago, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushering guests at the church were James Ronan Jr. of James Ochs of Evansville, Ind.; St. Louis, brother of the groom; Anthony Lapasso of Chicago and Joseph Dailey of Peoria, Ill., brother of the bride.

Corning — Miss Mary Ann Gorski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent F. Gorski, 132 Lake St., Webster, Mass., and William Stephen Dalton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Dalton of 135 Grampian Way, Dorchester, Mass., were married in St. Joseph Church at Webster, Mass. by the Rev. Joseph Sitkowski, cousin of the bride.

Miss Mary Szynal of Washington, D. C., was maid of honor. Miss Gloria J. Fink of Boston and Miss Patricia E. Browne of Concord were bridesmaids and Miss Marilyn Gorski of Webster, was flower girl.

Best man for the occasion was Paul Dinkel of Newton Highlands while the following ushered guests at the church: Richard Fountain of Lexington, Richard McGrath of Dorchester, Richard L. Ryan of Brighton, and Lt. Peter Scalise of Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Ginnane Rites Conducted

Addison—The Rev. Francis H. Turner, pastor, celebrated Requiem Mass in St. Catherine Church, Wednesday, Aug. 29, for Mrs. Julia Ginnane, 75-year-old widow of Edwin Ginnane. She is a former Addison school teacher.

Interment was made in St. Catherine Cemetery in the village. Father Turner led in the recitation of the Rosary at the Mayer Funeral Home.

K. C. Plans Pilgrimage To Auriesville Shrine

Rochester area Knights of Columbus and friends will go by bus, Sunday, Sept. 9 to the annual state-wide pilgrimage of the K. of C. at Auriesville. A bus will leave Columbus Civic Center at 7 a.m. according to Charles A. Tucker, chairman.

Tickets and reservations are available at Tucker's Catholic Store, 300 Main St. East, HAmilton 9460 or at the Knights of Columbus office, BAker 3983.

Grand Knight Donald E. Woerner said that this is the 300th anniversary of the birth of Venerable Kateri Tekawitha at Auriesville.

"Kateri is the young Indian girl whose cause is now being considered in Rome for beatification and canonization. The Knights have always been interested in Kateri Tekawitha. One of the large monuments at the Shrine was erected by the Knights in former years to honor Kateri at the place of her birth," he said.

THE HIGH MASS at noon will start off the pilgrimage. The Knights will assemble at the entrance to the shrine in a group at 11:30 a.m. and walk through what was the ancient Mohawk village of Ossernenon to the great Coliseum. The rosary will be recited where the first rosary was said in all of New York State by Father Jogues in 1642.

The Mass will be celebrated by State Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward P. Hoar, V.G. of Brooklyn. The rector of Auriesville, the Rev. William J. Schlaerth, S.J., will preach the sermon.

The outdoor Stations of the Cross will be conducted by the Rev. Gerald F. Millet, chaplain of the Schenectady Council of the Knights at 2:30 p.m.

STATE DEPUTY Frank D. J. Flanagan will welcome the Knights and extend greetings to all the pilgrims.

At 3:30 p.m. the procession of the Blessed Sacrament will take place beginning at the Coliseum and proceeding to the Ravine where America's first Martyr, St. Rene Goupil lies buried. In the Ravine, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward F. Maginn, vicar general of Albany will preach the sermon.

Pilgrims will have opportunities to venerate the relics of the Martyrs during the day. Masses will be every hour on the hour in the morning and there will be Mass also at 5 p.m. to accommodate those Knights and their families and other pilgrims who have come a long distance and were unable to attend Mass. Confessions will be heard during the day and priests will be available to bless the pilgrims and the sick and infirm.

The pilgrimage is under the chairmanship of Joseph L. Melody of New York.
