Notre Dame High Notes

By ANN DE MEMBER and BOB LEVANDUSKI
Notre Dame High School became alive once more with the sound of voices ringing through the halls and the scuffing of feet hurrying to all the various classes. We became aware of many new faces, 170 being Freshmen, searching their ways through the unfamiliar corridors for their next class. The school year was officially opened by His Excellency Bishop Kearney on Monday, Sept. 10, when he celebrated the Mass of the Holy Ghost for the entire student body in Notre Dame's Auditorium. His Excellency also gave an inspiring message to the students after the Mass. The school year was officially opened by a prayer by Father Joseph Hogan, Notre Dame's chaplain. This initial meeting stressed the Sodality Way of Life. Helen Boulas and Ann De Member, both delegates to the Summer School of Catholic Action held at Fordham University this summer, gave a skit comparing the military way of life to that of the Sodality. Tom Wheeland, also a delegate, talked on the importance of the Act of consecration to the Blessed Mother. NOTRE DAME will have its own Student Council this year. Because it is so new the Senior Class officers will be in charge until January when a formal election will take place. FRIDAY, SEPT. 21, is "Welcome Freshman Day" at Notre Dame. The Seniors have been working wholeheartedly to make this an unforgettable day for the Freshmen. An assembly in the afternoon in their honor and a dance in the evening will mark the first social event at Notre Dame.
