Tolerance Advance Cited

Senator Kennedy

Los Angeles — (RNS) — Senator John Kennedy, 39-year-old Massachusetts lawmaker who almost won the Democratic vice-presidential nomination, told a news conference here he thought the country is making advances in religious tolerance.

A Roman Catholic, Senator Kennedy said he thinks his battle for the party ticket spot was just another indication that the American voter is less suspicious of a candidate's religion.

He noted that Gov. Edmund S. Muskie, a Catholic, recently won re-election in Maine "where there is only a small percentage of Catholics," and that Gov. Abraham Ribicoff, a Jew "holds office in Connecticut where the percentage of Jews is even smaller."

"I have received a lot of letters, particularly from the South, after the vice-presidential fight at the party convention last month," Sen. Kennedy said. "They are a strong indication that religious intolerance in politics is much less than it was in the 20's."

Cottages, 'Sitters' Aid Families Make Retreat

Conception, Mo. — (NC) — Benedictine Fathers if this northwest Missouri community don't believe in keeping mom and the kids at home when dad makes a retreat.

They have organized a family retreat house, consisting of several cottages just outside the Conception Abbey here. The only prerequisite for making the weekend retreats is that the whole family is brought along.

At first, finding baby sitters for the infants-in-arms proved a problem. But, now mothers bring their young, while monks take pre-school children and give them a two-day "vacation" exploring the mysteries of nature in northwest Missouri miles away.

The monks use the opportunity for a specially designed retreat for tiny tots, telling them about God while they explain the birds and flowers.

The rest of the family attends the family retreat sessions together.

"The message we have is something for the whole family to hear, including the children," says Father Dominic Lavrin, the retreat master.

Father Lavrin believes a family retreat solves a lot more problems than it creates. To begin with, retreat counselors can get both the husband's and wife's side of the story at individual sessions. They can also counsel the two together at private family meetings and help the family iron out mutual problems. And bringing the children along puts the minds of mothers at rest, who would otherwise find concentration difficult with children scores—or hundreds of miles away.

Italy Head Attends Mine Victims' Mass

Rome — (NC) — President Giovanni Gronchi of Italy, accompanied by his wife, attended a Mass offered here in the Church of St. Mary of the Angels for victims of the recent mine fire in Marcinelle, Belgium.

Many Italian officials attended. The mine disaster caused 260 deaths.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S APPEAL

During October Pope Pius XII asks us to appeal for new members of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association. NEAR EAST MISSIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER support the missionary works of the Church in 12 countries of the Near East and also the West Coast of India. At the same time we serve four of the refugees of the Holy Land and all those that fled from behind the Iron Curtain. Shelters for these homeless people exist also in the eternal city of Rome.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP OFFERING IS A TREASURABLE GIFT TO OUR HOLY FATHER. Individual membership for a year is $1; for a whole family $5. Perpetual membership for an individual is $25—for the entire family $100. Rich individuals are granted by Our Holy Father to all members. ENROLL TO HELP HIS BELOVED PEOPLE.

REMEMBER GOD AND HIS MISSIONS IN YOUR WILL.

GOD'S OWN WANT ADS

Many of our existing Chapters in poor villages plead for articles to beautify God's abode. Perhaps you would like to give one of the following articles in memory of a loved one or to God.

Linens $15 Altar $75 Station $30
Cruets 25 Mass bowl 5 Altar plate 10
Vestments 30 Chalice 40 Mass book 25

BE GOOD TO GOD AND GOD WILL BE GOOD TO YOU.

YOUR PRIEST!

AUGUSTINE and THOMAS are beginning their first year of study for the Priesthood at St. Joseph's Seminary in India. Each boy needs $600 to complete his training before he becomes a priest of God—$100 a year for six years. Could you help one of these seminarians by giving this sum in any installments? He will be your adopted son—laboring to save souls for God. Many blessings will be yours for such a gift to Our Divine Saviour.

WRITE FOR INFORMATION ON GREGORIAN MASSES FOR YOUR OWN SOUL.

BISTER SEBASTIAN and SISTER INNOCENTIA plead for some kind benefactor to help them realize their life-long ambition—to be missionary Sisters for neglected souls. The cost of their training with the Clarist Sisters in Fa-Kai, India is $150 for each of their two years' training—$150 for each year. Can you answer their prayers? They will pray for you always.

GOD LOVES A CHEERFUL GIVER.

The Holy Father has sent us an appeal from the Parish Priest of Mochla Albanese, Italy. Many years ago over 1500 faithful fled to Italy for many persecutions in their own country Albania. At the present time their parish church is decrepit and falling apart. The appeal is for $100—sufficient to repair the church to its former beauty. We urge writing that our benefactors might give $1 or as much as they can—in the name of the Lord—to help these poor people in their present need. They lack this world's goods—but they do love God. Let's help them as much as possible.

OLD FOLKS and ORPHANS

The Sisters of Charity have founding homes in Jerusalem, Bethlehem and Beirut. They beg $7 to support a child for a month. Father August of Egypt begs for a gift of $5 to clothe one of his orphan children. Father Eugene begs for a gift of $10 to feed and house one of his beloved aged in the OLD FOLKS HOME in Jerusalem.
