Living Rosary To Open Meeting

The Living Rosary will begin the fall meetings of Mothers of Sorrows Rosary Society, Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the church. All members are invited.

Highlight of the evening will be a fall fashion show in the hall at 8:30 p.m. by Claire's Dress Shop. All ladies are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Members of the Society who will model are: Mesdames James Curtis, John Effinger, James Noble, John Readon, Kenneth Schaller, William Tracy, Angelo Uigiati and Edward Williams.

LAST SUPPER scene, a reproduction on the stage of the famous daVinci painting, is one of the highlights of the world-famed Black Hills Passion Play. Josef Meier is featured in the role of "the Christus", supported by a huge cast. The noted drama, sponsored by the Rochester Civic Music Association, will be seen at the Rochester War Memorial Auditorium October 10, 11 and 12. Tickets for all performances are now on sale at the Eastman Theatre Box Office.

Nazareth Academy Principal, Chaplain Urge Parents To Share Work Of School

An appeal to parents to share with the school, its work of Christian education, was made by Sister Agnes Cecilia, principal and the Rev. Charles B. Connell, chaplain at the first Parent Teacher Association meeting of the year in Nazareth Academy's capacity filled auditorium, Monday night.

Sister Agnes Cecilia stressed the importance of establishing at the outset an understanding of principles behind Christian life and Christian thinking.

"Together we must work on the everlasting needs and interests of these, your daughters," Sister said. "Our teaching staff—not only qualified—but actually vowed to the teaching of youth—stands ready to assist you, the parents, in your primary responsibility of bringing your daughters to full stature for the things of time and eternity."

EXPLAINING Nazareth's tradition of uncompromising standards for true Christian education and conduct of its students, Sister Cecilia urged the cooperation of parents in upholding these religious and intellectual norms.

In concluding, the academy principal declared: "This is God's work, done in God's presence. May it please Him to give success in the doing. Certainly we can measure success by the yardsticks of physical fitness, readiness for the world of work, cultural development, social competence and spiritual perfection.

"If our graduates possess these, we can feel, indeed, that God has blessed our efforts."

FATHER CONNELL called attention to the sacredness of the trust confided to parents and the corresponding responsibility of defending and protecting their children from harmful influences.

Quoting Pope Pius XI in his encyclical on Christian Education, Father Connell said: "Next to the priesthood there is no vocation on this earth so sacred, so important, so serious as the vocation of parenthood."

Parental responsibility regarding such debated subjects as: Should teenagers keep steady company; what hours should they keep; and what type of entertainment should they have, were discussed in the light of Christian teaching.

THE CHAPLAIN distinguished between discipline and punishment in the training of youth. Discipline, according to the chaplain, is the teaching through the cultivation of respect in young people through firmness, patience, kindness, love, and interest in the little everyday occurrences in the students' life, and, finally, by making the young people want to entertain their friends in their homes.

Father Connell added that many unhappy marriages have resulted in growing up in homes that were nothing more than houses.

Hostess

ANN BLYTHE

Hollywood, Calif. — (NC) — Ann Blyth, popular film star, will be hostess for the October 17 Family Theater broadcast on the Mutual network, heard in the Rochester area over Station WBBF.

Rita Johnson will star in the drama, "Reprisal," written by John T. Kelly. It is the story of an escaped prisoner from a German concentration camp during World War II, and the valiant attempt of his wife to secure medical aid for him. The Family Theater is produced and directed by Father Patrick Peyton, C.S.C.

Barrett-Tuite Wedding Held

Corning — Miss Dorothy Helen Tuite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tuite, Chili Ave., Rochester, and David L. Barrett, 22 Hazel St., were married on Sept. 8 in St. Augustine Church, Rochester.

The bride's uncle, the Rev. Paul E. Tuite, pastor of Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, Perkinsville, performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Mrs. Joseph Joyce was matron of honor and Mrs. Edward Batchelor was bridesmaid. Carol Ann Tuite and Dianne Joyce were flower girls.

Best man was Joseph Burger, Corning and ushers were Paul F. Tuite, Rochester and John Tuite, Horseheads, both brothers of the bride.

Controversial Films Dealt With By Legion

New York — (NC) — The National Legion of Decency dealt with two controversial films in its latest ratings, putting both of them in its "B" classification, "morally objectionable in part for all."

The two are "Tea and Sympathy," the film adaptation of the stage play, and "The Search for Bridey Murphy," the movie based on a Colorado housewife's story as told in the book of the same name.

"Tea and Sympathy," based on Robert Anderson's Broadway play, was produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and is due to open in many cities on September 28. In its objection the Legion said the screen adaptation contained certain changes which "repair in a limited manner the original moral offenses."

"HOWEVER," THE objection added, "the solution of the plot still tends to arouse undue sympathy for and to condone immoral actions. In addition, it contains suggestive sequences."

Observers have said that changes made in the film presentation are mostly in matters of emphasis rather than storyline. The stress placed on certain motivations has reportedly been toned down from the stage play.

"Tea and Sympathy" has its plot centered around the wife of a boys' school house master and a young student. The young man is accused by fellow students of being unmanly. He turns to the wife, who is growing apart from her husband, for sympathy. To resolve the boy's doubts about himself, the wife commits adultery with him.

"THE SEARCH for Bridey Murphy" film, said the Legion, places "undue emphasis" on the power of hypnotism and "inferentially . . . tends to create belief in the erroneous doctrine of reincarnation."

The Bridey Murphy story is generally considered to have been exploded by a Chicago daily newspaper since the first accounts of the "previous life." The publication found the story's "Bridey" in Chicago. She turned out to be a neighbor of the housewife when the latter was a child in Chicago. This proved the key to an explanation of other parts of the housewife's story of her life as a young lady in Ireland in the 18th century.
