Catholic Theatre Lists Opening Tonight In Holy Redeemer Hall

"Tidings Brought To Mary" will be presented by the Catholic Theatre of Rochester tonight (Friday), Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 12, 13 and 14 in Holy Redeemer Auditorium, Clifford Ave., Rochester.

Authored by the late French diplomat-poet, Paul Claudel, the play is under the direction of Wilford Scott, with Ronald Pedrone as producer and settings by Carl Zollo.

ARLOHA McVINNIE

The play, regarded by its author as his own favorite, "treats of the adult life and death of a French peasant girl who rashly kisses a leper and contacts the disease herself," a spokesman said.

Cast of "Tidings Brought To Mary" includes: Robert Bride, Mary Mikell Clark, Edward Hannan, Arloha McVinnie, Ronald Petrone, Rosemary Petrossi, Jean Strachan and Herbert Yates.

STAFF FOR the play includes: Callista Esterguard, assistant director; Mary Strife, assistant set director; Richard Gerger, Jim Kelly, Steve Martin, Fay Eighme, Richard O'Connor, Skip Neahlon, Joan Gerger, Jack Burger, stage assistants.

Costumes are by Pilli Parker and Anthony DeCroce, assisted by Ann DeMasi, Mary McVinnie, Marianne Schlagenhauf and William Andia.

Other production staff members are: Pat Farrell, Helen Closser, properties; Agnes Marie Coon, makeup; Mario DeMasi, business manager; Joseph Sanelli, program cover; Frank Riesenberger, program director; Frank Gehrlein, Sr., house manager, assisted by Tom Arcara, Helen DeMarse, Fred DeMarse, Noreen Carey, Jane Carey.

PUBLICITY IS in the charge of Betty Nagle, assisted by Doris Gehrlein, Geraldine Yawman and Margaret Lipper.

Chaplain of Catholic Theatre is the Very Rev. Richard M. Quinn, rector of St. Andrew Seminary.

Nazareth Cast Chosen For College Drama

Five Nazareth College students have been cast in the annual fall play "The Righteous Are Bold," by Irish playwright Frank Carney, according to Alan Stambusky, director of drama.

The play will have two performances in the college auditorium on Friday, Nov. 30 and Saturday, Dec. 1 at 8:30 p.m.

CANDIDA PILLA, sophomore music major from Trenton, N. J., will play the role of Nora Geraty.

All Speech and Drama majors will play the other female parts.

ALAN STAMBUSKY

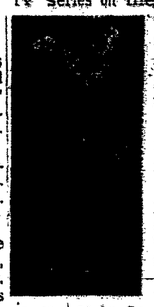
Mary Ann Handlan of Geneva, N. Y. will be seen as Mary Kate Geraty, Stephanie Sullivan of Windham, N. Y. as Nellie the Post, Mary Samway of Schenectady as Mother Benedict, and Sally Denvir of Boston, Mass. as Sister Mary of the Rosary.

With its production of "The Righteous Are Bold," the Dramatic Association of Nazareth College claims the distinction of being the first college theatre company to offer the play after its release for off-Broadway presentation, according to the director.

THE PLAY had its initial production at the famous Abbey Theatre, Dublin in 1946 where it broke all attendance records and proved to be the greatest success in the long history of that renowned playhouse. It ran for an unprecedented 16 weeks and was revived three times.

'We Believe' Program Slated On WVET-TV

Religion taught with visual props is the promise of a new TV series on the truths of the Catholic faith starting Sunday, October 21, on Rochester's WVET-TV (channel 10) from 11:30 till noon.



Rev. James J. McQuade, S.J., of John Carroll University, Cleveland, will be featured in the 13 weeks Father McQuade series titled WE BELIEVE, designed to present the teachings of the Catholic religion in an objective and scientific manner.

Produced by the National Council of Catholic Men in Washington and currently appearing on some 50 television stations across the country, the programs will be informative for Catholics as well as non-Catholics.

The initial program will be concerned with what Catholics believe about "Religion". Father McQuade will be found surrounded by unique props to underscore and clarify his discussion.

Possessed of a keen sense of humor, the Jesuit speaker has the talents of a great teacher in making his presentations lively, entertaining and crystal clear for all viewers.

On succeeding Sundays the WE BELIEVE program will present Father McQuade in explanations of what Catholics believe on God, Christ, Worship, Sanctifying Grace, Sacraments, the Bible, Church and State, and the Religious life.

Cathedral Guild Receives Members

Rosary Guild of Sacred Heart received new members into the Confraternity of the Rosary at services held in the Cathedral on Monday, Oct. 8.

At the meeting which followed in the school auditorium, the Rev. Nicholas Wolensky, pastor of St. Josaphat Church, gave an explanation of the Eastern rites of the Catholic Church and displayed the colorful vestments used in the Byzantine-Slavonic rite.

Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Pat O'Brien Plays 'Circus Priest'

New York — (NC) — Film actor Pat O'Brien will star in "Circus Priest," a drama about a circus chaplain, on the Cross-roads program October 12 on ABC-TV (Channel 10 in the Rochester area) 8:30 to 9 p.m., EDT, it has been announced.

Pat O'Brien

The story deals with an incident in the life of Father Edward S. Sullivan of Roxbury, Mass., who ministered for several years to performers under the big top.

It tells how Father Sullivan prevented a grieving and temperamental trapeze artist from taking the life of a man whom he blamed for the fatal fall of his wife.

FATHER Sullivan is now stationed at All Saints' Church in Roxbury. A graduate of Boston College, he became interested in the circus world after working at Boston zoos and with "wild animal man" John T. Benson of Hoboken, N. J.

He turned down Mr. Benson's offer of a career as an animal collector to devote his life to the priesthood. "Circus Priest" was written by Tom Reed and is directed by Ralph Murphy.

Family Rosary Radio Leaders

Tuesday, Oct. 16 — Rev. Arthur Florack, pastor of St. Michael Church;

Wednesday, Oct. 17 — Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard Burns, pastor of St. Thomas Church;

Thursday, Oct. 18 — Rev. Joseph T. Maloney, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes.

Pup Still Needed At Mercy To Complete 'Barretts' Cast

Only casting left to be done on Our Lady of Mercy High School's forthcoming production of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" is the part of "Flush," pet dog of famed English poetess Elizabeth Barrett, according to Sister Mary Pius, director.

At present, Judy Donnelly's cocker spaniel, Carol Wiest's pomeranian and Roxanne Forrest's Pekingnese have een auditioned by the director, who says competition is keen.

"Flush" was the constant companion of Elizabeth Barrett and is an important character in the final tense moments of the drama.

Senior play is set for Thursday and Friday evenings, Oct. 25 and 26 at 8:30 p.m.

Catholic Education Role Featured In TV Drama

New York —(NC)—"Teach All Nations," a story of famous men and women who dedicated their lives to education, will be televised on the Catholic Hour on October 14 over the NBC-TV network from 1:30 to 2 p.m., WROC-TV in the Rochester area.

The documentary drama starts in the year 1500, when the first Catholic school in America was established among the Indians by a Spanish Dominican, Father Bartholomew De Las Casas.

THE TELECAST shows the progress of Catholic education in the U.S. to the present era.

The program is the second in a series of four live telecasts on the Catholic Hour that tell the role of the Church in American history. The Catholic Hour is produced by the National Council of Catholic Men.

Dramatic moment in the Canadian Players production of Shakespear's "Hamlet" is that in which William Hutt (above, left) as Hamlet and David Gardner as Horatio see the ghost of Hamlet's father. Single performance is scheduled at Rochester's Auditorium Theatre on Saturday, Oct. 20.

Canada Group Sets 'Hamlet' For 1 Performance Oct. 20

The Canadian Players will bring Shakespeare's "Hamlet" to the Auditorium Theatre in Rochester for a single performance on Saturday evening, Oct. 20.

Although "Hamlet" is generally accepted as Shakespeare's greatest play, this will be the first professional production of the play since Maurice Evan's G. I. Hamlet n 1946.

William Hutt and Francis Hyland, who both star in the classic, are featured players of the famous Sheakespeare Festival of Stratford, Ont., Canada.

"Hamlet" is under the direction of Douglas Campbell.

THE GROUP, which is currently on their third annual coast-to-coast tour, returns to Rochester after a premiere performance of Shaw's "Saint Joan" last year.

The Shaw play introduced a unique production method to the Rochester theatre-goer. A "platform production" using costumes and only basic scenery put the emphasis on the playwright's lines. "Hamlet" will follow this pattern but the company size has been doubled and costumes are considerably more elaborate, it is reported.

PERFORMANCE WILL begin promptly at 8:30 p.m. and is being presented by Dorothy Chernuck and Omar K. Lerman.

Box office will open on Monday, Oct. 15. Special group rates and reduced rates for students are available.

Card Party Set At St. Andrew's

St. Andrew Auxiliary 232 Knights of St. John, will hold its fall card party Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

Mrs. Florence Oldfield, chairman and her cochairman Mrs. Marie Fien will be assisted by Lillian Bartl, Margaret Bauerschmidt, Irene Bohre, Teresa Burger, Florence Helmrich, Catharine Laemlein, Viola Schwan and Edith Samenfink.
