Queen's Work Representative Visits Mercy

Miss Dorothy Willmann of the Queen's Work staff honored Our Lady of Mercy High School Sodality on Monday, Oct. 15, with a visit at their first general Sodality meeting. This was Miss Willmann's only school visit before her trip back to St. Louis.

Firing Mercy's Sodality to be sharpshooters and light infantry of Our Lady's forces of Christianity, Miss Willmann urged them to give the 100% perpetual consecration to Mary which is part of their Sodality consecration.

"The Blessed Mother will quicken in you the Holy Spirit to such an extent that if you are given a job, you will be able to do it. This calls for complete abandonment though to Our Lady."

Saying that she thought of the Sodality as an apostolic group that forms that kind of apostle who will jump into the area to spread the Church, Miss Willmann explained the "social apostolate," the changing of certain areas and institutions to that Christ can take over more fully. This could apply, she said, to changing the atmosphere prevailing at a dance, in a classroom, at work, so that Christ could walk into the spot vacated by the world.

Patron Drive Launched At Mercy High School

The senior class of Our Lady of Mercy High School, with a goal of $2,000, launched the first drive of the year, the annual patron drive, which will end in early November.

The journalism class heads this drive with 13 sets of senior captions in charge of the underclassmen homerooms. They will be assisted by the homeroom cub reporters.

Sodalists Asked To Give Thanks On Silver Jubilee

"This is a time of thanksgiving," His Excellency Bishop Kearney told Sodalists at last Sunday's (Oct. 14) twenty-fifth anniversary observance of the Rochester diocesan sodality union.

The Bishop spoke following a Solemn Mass at 4 p.m. in St. Boniface Church, Rochester.

He paid high tribute to the late Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., who aided in organizing the sodality program throughout the Rochester diocese. The Bishop termed Father Lord the "modern apostle of the sodality of our Lady."

AT A BANQUET following the Mass, Miss Dorothy Willmann of the sodality's national staff at St. Louis told the sodalists that they "are called upon to cooperate in changing the institutions which have been responsible for the breakdown in family life, in labor conditions, interracial tensions and other social and economic spheres."

She urged sodalists to continue their sodality program into their adult life — especially by aiding pastors and bishops in effective Catholic Action.

Rev. Edward E. Steinkirchner, diocesan director of parish sodalities, supervised the anniversary program.

Halloween Dance Planned By HN

Holy Name Society of St. Monica Church will sponsor a Halloween dance Saturday, Oct. 20 in the school hall.

Frank Monk's Orchestra will furnish the music for both round and square dancing.

The hall will be decorated to carry out the Halloween theme and elder and doughnuts will be served.

Admission is $1 per couple and dancing is from 9 till 12 p.m.

James Raymond Mensing is chairman of the dance committee, assisted by the new officers: James B. Vernam, president; Bob Carro, vice president; Donald A. Smith, secretary; also Roger Bunce, Frank Wagner, Jim Flynn and Frank Rivers.
