

Mercy Students To Dedicate School To Christ The King

The stirring words of the "Christus Regnat" will resound in the auditorium of Our Lady of Mercy High School, today, Oct. 26, when Our Lady of Mercy High students gather in a traditional ceremony to dedicate their school to Christ the King.

In the morning, the entire student body will sing the Mass, celebrated by the Rev. Richard Torney, school chaplain, in the auditorium.

In the afternoon, the officers of the various organizations, offering a symbol of their club, will dedicate their activities for the year to Christ the King.

Representing the various groups will be Barbara Pictello, Sodalita prefect; Fran Cooley, C.S.M.C. president; Paula Smith, Student Council president; Arnette Young, Quill editor; Norma Heberger, Mercedes editor; Pat Logan, Cold Frame editor; Kay Barrett, president of Theophanes; Judy Marx, Caritas Club head; Theresa Pace, Science Club; and a sports representative.

'Autumn Leaves' Dance Planned By Mercians

"Autumn Leaves" will provide the setting and theme for the first dance of the season, Friday, Nov. 2, for upperclassmen of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Senior Paula Smith, Student Council president, and Joyce Marcello, student Council vice president, heading the arrangements, have engaged Gene Zacher's orchestra for the $12 informal.

Junior Judy Loewenguth heads the decoration committee; soph Suzanne Maler and her committee will make the refreshment arrangements; and senior Pat Terhaar and committee will handle the tickets, according to Sister M. Joseph, moderator of the Student Council and Student Government Association.

Aiding with pre-dance planning are the recently elected home room representatives to the Student Council. They are seniors Elaine Collins, Connie Marinaro, Mary Erb, Gail Fitzpatrick and Mary Kay Schrader; juniors Janet Bronson, Barbara Baker, Pat Katafraz, Mary Lou Porter, and Judy Loewenguth.

Sophomores on the council are Jackie Terhaar, Bert England; Janet Spies, Kathy Weston, Ann Williams, Barbara Arnold and Elaine Klingler; freshmen representatives are Linda Repp, Marcia Farrell, Jean Auberger, Ann McArthur, Jackie Kulus, Kathleen Meagher, and Kathleen McGraw.

Also assisting are the student government secretary, senior Betty Allison, and its treasurer, soph Linda Coelho.

Excursion Slated To Erie Game

Aquinas Institute Student Council is sponsoring a bus excursion to the Aquinas-Cathedral Prep game in Erie, Pa. on Sunday, Oct. 29.

Following Aquinas' 12-6 win over St. Cecilia's of Englewood, N. J. on Oct. 14, Coach Joe Repko has had two weeks of practice to prepare his charges for the Erie tilt. Last year Erie squeezed out a 7-6 victory over Aquinas.

The Cathedral boys are led by Gene Tomczak, a 6'1", 180 lb. halfback. The forward wall is balanced by Ed Davis (6'3", 220 lbs.) and Ron Kujawinski (6', 180 lbs.) at the tackle spots.

Terry Donahue was chosen Aquinas player of the week by the student body for the Aquinas-St. Cecilia game.

Probable starting lineups:
Golding, LT; Whelan, LT; Fischer, LG; Niemeyer, C; LeBoe, RG; Lisow, RT; Byrne, RE; Graham, QB; Sedla, HB; Miller, FB

Erie:
Carey, LE; Davis, LT; Messina, RG; Behan, C; Nelson, RG; Kujawinski, RT; Walkiewicz, RE; Costello, QB; Tomczak, HB; Kopkowski, HB; Murphy, FB.

Largest, Smallest Fish Win Prizes

September proved to be one of the most exciting months in the history of the Wehle Fishing Contest, producing the largest muskellunge ever entered in the contest and the smallest brook trout. This record-breaking 60 lb. 8 oz. muskie was taken from the St. Lawrence River by Mrs. Ruth Lawton of Delmar.

The 10 1/2 oz. brook trout, which captured the record of being the smallest brook trout to win a cash prize in the Wehle Contest, was entered by Otis Woodard of Syracuse.

St. Anthony's Boy Scouts Presented American Flag

St. Anthony's Boy Scout Troop 190 was presented an American flag from St. Patrick's Memorial Post of the Catholic War Veterans at ceremonies in the church hall on Oct. 18.

Present at the ceremonies to receive the flag were Scout Leader Alfred Klaus and Scout Joseph Faraco. In the hall were the scout troop and parents of the boys.

The Rev. Michael J. Tydings, pastor and the Rev. Clarence Gardner, assistant, were on hand for the presentation.

The ritual team from St. Patrick's Catholic War Veterans was headed by Commander John Falkner who was accompanied by Chaplain J. J. Lane, Danato Santopietri, Sam Gaglio, and William Schmitt.

Publication Honors Presented Local Schools, College

Journalism awards to local Catholic schools were announced at the 13th annual Scholastic Editor's Conference held at the University of Rochester last Saturday.

The following awards were made: Catholic school newspapers: first, Our Lady of Mercy High School, The Quill; second, Nazareth Academy, The Gabriel; third, McQuaid Jesuit High School, The Lancer.

Catholic school yearbooks: first, Nazareth Academy, The Lancers; second, Aquinas Institute, Aree; third, St. Agnes High School, Agnes Del.

Nazareth College's The Gleason took third prize in the college newspaper division and the college's Significance took second prize in the college yearbook division.

Special literary publications earned a first place award for Our Lady of Mercy High School's Mercedes in the Catholic School division. Nazareth College took first place in the college division for Verity Fair.

Dr. Russell Jandoll, journalism professor at St. Bonaventure University, was guests speaker. The conference is sponsored by Richard Felter, James House, and William Murphy.

Geneva Recieves Air Force Promotion

Geneva — Clayton J. O'Brien, US Air Force, has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Brien, 123 Pultney St.

Currently stationed at Keosauqua, Iowa, Lt. O'Brien is serving with the Air Squadron Rescue and flying the DC-6 and helicopters as well as C-124 transports on weekends.

In the book is found the love God has for all and will help each boy and girl increase his trust in God.

Father Brennan, pastor of St. Bridget Church, Rochester is also the author of the Angel Food Series, God Died at Three o'clock, The Man Who Dared a King, among others.

Nazareth College Initiates Catholic Youth Week Rites

Nazareth College will initiate Catholic Youth Week activities by cooperating in the observance of Sunday, Oct. 28, as Catholic Youth Communion Sunday.

A campaign of publicity and general announcements is underway to encourage every student to receive Communion on the Feast of Christ the King in union with Catholic Youth throughout the United States.

AS A SPECIAL project emphasizing the theme of Catholic Youth Week, "Trust in Youth" the whole campus will be polled on pertinent questions relating to the student role in the lay apostolate. Nazareth students will express their opinions on such issues as the nature of the student vocation, the responsibility of a student in civic affairs and the particular position of students in the Church and in the field of Catholic Action.

The poll, sponsored by the National Federation of Catholic College Students unit on campus, is aimed at stimulating an awareness in Nazareth students of their mission as Catholic young adults exercising a vital and forceful unity in the nation.
