St. Thomas Club Keys Awarded 21 At Aquinas

Twenty-one students of Aquinas Institute were awarded St. Thomas Club keys—highest scholastic achievement in the school. The awards were made last Tuesday during a school assembly by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard Burns, pastor of St. Thomas Church.

In an address, Msgr. Burns exhorted the entire student body to use their talents no matter whether they be great or small for the greater honor and glory of God. "People will respect you for your learning," he said, "when they will not respect you for your religion. Education, then, becomes a work of the apostolate, a means of bringing the Faith to the unbeliever," he said.

Rev. E. G. Hart, C.S.B. vice principal and Rev. W. O. Regan, C.S.B., director of Christian Formation, assisted Msgr. Burns in presenting the keys to the following students: Gerald Budinski, Eugene Clifford, James Di Vincenzo, Brian Gibson, Mike Grattan, James Schmitz, Gerald Pawlowski, James Spheremita, Peter Weaver, Robert Yahn, Robert Boykin, James Erstein, Gerald Frank, James Grissold, Philip Nothnagle, Sam Rizzo, Joseph Scholand, Joseph L. Thomas, Nellis, Edward Pirra and J. Michael Wesley.
