Nazareth Seniors Rehearse 'Murder In A Nunnery' Play

Senior Class of Nazareth Academy will present "Murder in a Nunnery," a mystery play by Emmet Lavery on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 28, 29, and 30 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Getting in the mood for her role of "Inez Escapado," a little savage from South America, Annette Ferris poses "with friend" at the Rochester city zoo's reptile house.

MALE LEADS will be played by Peter Russo, sergeant; Vincent Wisman, inspector; Allen Scarsella, reporter; Steve Martin, "baron," and James Cuhane, "Mr. Turtle." All are seniors at Aquinas Institute.

DOINGS AT THE DALY'S

Mary Daly, a maximum of restraint was required to keep this column from telling you how cute newest granddaughter Maura is.

"No," responds the second. "And did I forget to thank you?" So, no description — just a heartfelt "Thanks be to God,"

"Turn it this way, Gramma," Lu Anne instructed. "Put the water, see?" Lu Anne smiled, action to word. "Put in the soap and dices and come on upstairs."

Play Tells Story Of Diabolic Possession

"The Righteous Are Bold," a Dublin Abbey Theatre success by Irish playwright Frank Carney, will be produced by the Nazareth College Dramatic Association on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 at 8:30 p.m. in the college auditorium, 4245 East Ave.

In Rehearsal — Director Alan Stambusky and student-actress Candida Philia, above, are shown in rehearsal of a tense moment from the forthcoming Nazareth College production of "The Righteous Are Bold," set for performance on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 in the college auditorium.

A matinee performance for religious, clergy and seminarians will be held on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. According to Alan Stambusky, director of drama at Nazareth, the play is "a dark-and-light story of possession and exorcism about a young Irish girl who is actually possessed by the devil and for whose soul a priest engages in mortal combat."

PERFORMANCES are being coached by Rita Trojan Stambusky. "The Righteous Are Bold" had its initial production at Ireland's famed Abbey Theatre, Dublin, in 1946 where it broke all attendance records and proved to be the greatest success in the long history of that renowned playhouse.

CAST MEMBERS in the Nazareth production include: Candida Philia, Mary Ann Handlan, Sally Denver, Stephanie Sullivan, Mary Samway, James Mead, Bernard Hall, Mark Bonisgnore and Craig MacNab.

Peru Indians Learn Faith In Maryknoll Classes

Asuncion (NC) — A catechetical program started for 90,000 Quechua Indians six months ago by the Maryknoll Fathers has proven so successful that plans are being made to extend it to the entire Diocese of Puno.

The Quechua Indians living in this remote area have lacked any religious instruction for years due to the acute shortage of priests. Maryknollers working here decided a possible solution might lie in a well established catechetical program.

Welcome, Miss Maura!

"Nothing of the kind," we protested. "Just give us the formula proportions."

Why, baby care has all the troubles taken out, we thought. Automatism — it's wonderful! AT THE END of naptimes, though, we found that automatism has its limits.

Sean decided that he loved his new sister Maura so much that she could have his hammer toy, his dearest possession, and was about to pitch it to her in the bassinet.
