Father Havas To Address County Catholic Veterans

Principal speaker at the Monroe County Chapter Catholic War Veterans banquet, to be held in conjunction with the 11th annual convention in the Powers Hotel on Jan. 13, will be the Rev. John Havas, S.J., a member of the faculty of McQuad Jesuit High School, according to John L. Driscoll, county commander.

Father Havas who served as a missionary in China for 19 years, was arrested and imprisoned by the Chinese Communists in 1952 for his refusal to turn over to his captors a list of the names of students at Aurora University, Shanghai, a school established by the Hungarian Jesuits, where Father Havas taught.

Ralph Edwards, a member of Sacred Heart Post, was appointed general chairman of the convention and banquet, assisted by the following committee heads: tickets, John O'Connor; reception, Donald Foley; ritual, Trevor Durrant; toastmaster, DeWain Feller; C.W.V. Auxiliary, Miss Esther Eaves; publicity, Raymond E. Jeffery.

Vietnam President Hits Red 'Massacres'

Hong Kong — (RNS) — The Saigon Radio broadcast an appeal by President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Vietnam urging the free world to help stop "the massacres by Communists" in the largely Roman Catholic-populated district of Guynh Lau in North Vietnam.

"Like the Polish and Hungarian peoples," the appeal said, "the people of North Vietnam rebelled against the terrorist Communist regime and thousands were massacred."

The President's appeal was heard shortly after a Hanoi Radio broadcast claimed that "order and security" had been restored in the Guynh Lau area after Catholic farmers had staged a revolt in protest against the land "reform" program there.

Anti-Christian Wave Hits Middle East

Beirut, Lebanon — (NC) — The recent expulsion of Franciscan Father Eugene Hoade from Jordan is just a small indication of the attitude of civil authorities there toward the Church and toward Westerners in general.

Since the sudden outbreak of hostilities in the Middle East, there has been a wave of hostility against Westerners and Western institutions. Tempers have been aroused by the vitriolic comments of Arab radio broadcasters.

SHORTLY AFTER the first bombs fell on Suez, Christian centers in Syria were attacked by fanatical mobs of Arabs. Some of the Christian schools were burned, badly damaged, or completely destroyed by the aroused vandals.

The crowds of Arabs forgot that these schools had been serving them and their children for years. They seemed to know only one thing: the schools were run by Christians, and must therefore be destroyed.

REPORTS HAVE reached here that representatives of the Ministry of Social Welfare in Jordan had demanded possession of supplies stored in the Pontifical Mission warehouses in Amman, capital of Jordan. The reason reported was that the officials wanted to supervise distribution of the supplies during the emergency situation in the Arab world.

In reply to objections made by the representatives of the Pontifical Mission, the Arab officials said that they were not confiscating the goods, but merely "keeping watch over them."

In Musical

Featured in Music Theatre's presentation of the Broadway musical "Plain and Fancy" is Bill Baller (above). Show is scheduled for Rochester's Auditorium Theatre Saturday and Sunday evenings, Dec. 29 and 30, and Monday evening, New Year's eve. "Plain and Fancy" is staged by Miss Noreen Carey, under the musical direction of Miss Suzanne Wigg.

"AS ONE OF THESE"

Dear Lord, I thought today how sweet a child can be.
This world of ours is seething with doubt,
Nations and people groping within and without.
But a child faces each day with trust,
Builds fantasies from snow and rain and dust.
Never worries about tomorrow and his destiny.
His mind is not cluttered with useless things.
Each toy has a purpose, incongruous as they seem,
For each has a meaning in reality or dream.
Wallet and whistle, cowboy and broom,
Rabbit's foot, scapular, side by side in the room!
And surveying them all is the King of Kings.
When Your patience is tried with constant pleas,
And you listen unceasingly to human complaints,
See a wavering of faith in sinners and saints,
Oh Lord, help us to lose false ruminants of pride,
From our hearts and minds cast materialism aside.
Teach us to become "As one of these."

Plan Valley Forge Scout Jamboree

Official Poster of Fourth National Jamboree

Fifty thousand Boy Scouts, Explorers, and leaders from all parts of the nation and some from other lands will camp together at the Fourth National Jamboree July 12-18.

A 1,500-acre tent city is being prepared at historic Valley Forge in Pennsylvania. It will have its own water supply, electricity, telephone service, post offices, and other services for the largest gathering of boys in the Western Hemisphere.

Jamboree campers, all of them at least twelve years old, holding Second Class rank or higher, will share daily camp chores, cook their own meals, take part in displays, campfires, demonstrations, intercamp visits, and excursions to historic shrines in and near Philadelphia.

Outstanding Americans will take part in principal events.
