Druggist Removes Banned Movie Book From Shelves

Sy Margolis, proprietor of Sy's Drug Store, 858 Dewey Avenue, has taken the pocket book editions of the Legion of Decency condemned movie "Baby Doll" from his display racks and returned them to his distributor, according to a tele was learned that pharmacist Marphoned report from a parishion golis was noticed as he stacked er of Holy Rosary parish to the the books and bound them for editor of the Courier Journal late return. When asked about his last night. Upon further investigation it gist stated:

reasons for doing so the drug-"MY PLACE of business is located in a predominantly Catholic neighborhood between the Holy Rosary parochial school and Aquinas Institute. There are a lot of young people in and out of the store who know that the movie is not for them to see. In my own opinion, neither is the book, which is nothing more or less than the script of the movie with a lot of 'still' pictures of the production." "I cannot see that I'd be acting in the best interests of my trade in allowing the sale of these books in my store", he concluded. The distributor of the book was not named. However its circulation, timed with the release of the "garbage spectacular" and its widespread condemnation. , appears to be an obvious attempt to force its acceptance.

The feast of Holy Innocents last week reminds us that the Babe was homeless in Egypt during His flight. He is again today; for, in Glabal Rezegat, an Egyptian village along the Nile. He has no chapel to dwell with His poor community of 400 Christians in that Moslem land. Father Francis, the Franciscan missionary there, writes of his people; "Theirs is a Christianity like that of the first century; with only a room for Mass, most must stand outside. We don't even have a cemetery for our dead." He pleads for $3,000 to build a chapel. We already have received $1,000 from a kind benefactor. Won't you help with the remainder?

To bury his dead in consecrated ground Father Francis must buy a piece of land and encircle it with a wall-an unwritten law in Egypt. He'll need almost $2.000 for it. He also explains their dire poverty is due to the sterility of the land-their sole industry. This is because their land is just out of reach of the Nile's water. With a few hundred dollars he could install a pump to irrigate all their fields. Every mite you can spare will go to help these souls to help themselves.

LONG COLD WINTER

Within a few weeks FATHER KING will reseive a shipment of the clothing which was donated during the Thanksgiving clothing drive. As he distributes them in the name of the Holy Father to almost 900,000 Arab exiles from Palestine, he must also try to meet many other of their basic needs-schooling for the children, food, medical care and miscellaneous emergencies. He and his refugees are eternally grateful for every help given, like FOOD PACKAGE or other. For each $10 gift we send a lovely HOLY LAND ROSARY OF OLIVE WOOD which he sends from Jerusalem,

ALEXANDER OF THE EAST It is not the great general and empire-builder of ancient Greece, but a lad who aspires to lead the armies of faithful in building the spiritual empire of God's Church on earth. ALEXANDER has five more years of training for the priesthood at a seminary for oriental rite priests in Rome. If that is not far enough east, we have another Alexander in the Seminary of the Syro-Chaldean rite in Mosul, Iraq, who has six more years to train. We need $100 each year for each boy. Won't you adopt one-of these by promising to send this yearly sum in any installments for his remaining years of study. Think of what a spiritual champion you'll have on your side.

"Every Christmas our company gives us a bonus, Father. Sud-denly I realize that I have nothing to show for the past bonuses. Now I'm going to give it to the Holy Father for his many mission needs. Now I'll have something to show." God bless this young man for such a gift to our Holy Father's STRINGLES GIFT FUND. Have you a mite for him today?
