

Small Catholic Daughters Protest Condemned Film

Members of the St. Ann Catholic Daughters of America met in the club rooms with Mrs. Mary Crandall, president, presiding. A committee was organized to prevent the showing of the condemned film "Baby Doll."

Donations of $5 were made to the March of Dimes and the Viet Nam Relief. Eighteen new members will be initiated, a former member reinstated and one member will be transferred from the Jersey City Court at ceremonies Jan. 28 in the club rooms.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burrell and Miss Elizabeth Haedler, co-chairmen of the banquet committee, announced that the annual banquet will be held Feb. 10 at the Moose Club. Miss Josephine Fitzgerald and Miss Virginia Husong were appointed to assist with the lending library in St. Ann Church.

Reformed
The newlywed wives at the club were discussing their favorite topics, husbands.
"Bert was a chain smoker when he married me," said one. "Now he doesn't smoke at all."
"My word" applauded the other. It takes a strong will to do that.
"Yes," responded the first, "and that's just what I have."

PROPOSED CONVENT IN GATES — Architect's rendering of the proposed convent for Holy Ghost parish, Coldwater Road, Gates, is pictured above. New Convent Slated In Gates Parish

Parishwide solicitation of funds for a new convent for Sisters at Holy Ghost School, Coldwater Road, Gates, is scheduled Sunday, Feb. 10, the Rev. Albert J. Geiger, pastor, announced today.

Construction of the two-story brick building, designed for a capacity of 10 sisters, began last month on the parish property off Buffalo Road. It will replace the present inadequate frame dwelling housing seven School Sisters of Notre Dame.

Organization of a 150-man committee to conduct the fund campaign is underway. Minimum goal is $50,000 in three-year pledges. Men of the parish have been invited to committee meetings scheduled on the next two Thursday nights, Jan. 24 and 31, in the parish hall.

PARISHIONERS have been asked by Father Geiger to remain at home during a two-hour period on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 10, until contacted by a solicitor. Assisting in direction of the campaign is Foley Associates Inc., a Rochester fundraising organization.

Planned for occupancy in August, the new convent will contain besides the 10 rooms for Sisters, a chapel, community room, two guest rooms, kitchen and laundry. Contractor is Daniel J. Meagher Inc., and Edward M. Lorscheider is architect.

Construction of the new convent is the last major need in the physical plant of the growing parish, which dates its history back to 1875. The parish has a Medina-stone church seating 600; a modern school building, with an enrollment of 286 pupils; a large rectory; a parish hall seating nearly 300; a cemetery, and the present convent building.

POST-CIVIL WAR days, when scattered Catholic families a few miles west of Rochester walked nearly 10 miles to the city to Mass, are recalled by pioneers who remember the days of 1865 when these families engaged a layman part-time to teach their children in a small frame building on Coldwater Road donated by Leoard and Euphemia Vogel.

In the memory of many, too, is the red-letter day in 1875 when nearly all the men of the parish mounted horses to meet the first Bishop of Rochester, His Excellency Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid, and escorted him to the parish plot for the cornerstone laying in the first church building.

Holy Ghost Church was at first a mission of St. John the Evangelist Church, on Ridge Road, Greece. It was in 1908 that it was created a parish and the late Rev. Peter A. Erras appointed pastor. Father Erras died in 1936 and was succeeded by the late Rev. Joseph C. Wurzer, then vice-principal of Aquinas Institute. Father Wurzer died July 28, 1943, and Father Geiger was appointed to succeed him. The Rev. Richard G. Stanton is assistant pastor.

V. S. Daukintas Rites Conducted

Bath—Vaclavos S. Daukintas, 57, of 128 Pulteney St., Hammondsport, died Sunday, Jan. 6, in Lake View Hospital here. The Rosary was recited at the Bond Funeral Home in Hammondsport the following Tuesday evening, with funeral services in St. Gabriel's Church Wednesday morning. Burial took place in Pleasant Valley Cemetery.

A native of Lithuania, he was born March 26, 1893, a son of Phillip and Josephine Daukintas. He was married May 4, 1938 to the former Josephine Anna Medels, who survives him. Mr. Daukintas was employed by the Pleasant Valley Wine Company. Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Miss Bernadette Daukintas and a son Edward, all at home; a brother Blades of East Chicago, Ind., and several brothers and sisters behind the "Iron Curtain" in Europe.

Notre Dame, Construction of the new building, expected to be ready for occupancy in August, already is underway. Architect is Edward M. Lorscheider, and contractor is Daniel J. Meagher Inc. The Rev. Albert J. Geiger, pastor, announced that a parishwide drive for funds will be undertaken during a two-hour period on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 10, with a minimum goal of $50,000 in three-year pledges.

3 Million Dollar Building Slated At St. Bonaventure

St. Bonaventure, N. Y. — A $3,000,000 Building and Development Program at St. Bonaventure University has been announced by the Very Rev. Brian Lhota, OFM, University president.

In his announcement, Father Lhota disclosed that the University's board of trustees had authorized the increase in the school's debt at this time to meet the needs of the ever-increasing student body.

The proposed project, to coincide with the University's year-long centennial program which starts next October 4, will include the construction of a 40-room arts building and a 100-room friary.

ENROLLMENT AT St. Bonaventure has increased by 20% in the past two years, taxing to the limit all available classroom space. War-time emergency classroom buildings still being used are beyond repair from a sound economic standpoint. The university has reached the point where it cannot continue to give full service without a larger plant, Father Lhota said.

He added that construction of a friary will release space in Devereux Hall, a student residence, for about 200 more boarding students. Since 1930, when fire destroyed St. Bonaventure's Church, Monastery, and Seminary, the more than 90 Franciscan priests who staff the university have been residing in Devereux.

The proposed buildings will be modern in design, blending with the Italian traditional style of present campus buildings. Each of the new buildings will be three stories high and will be faced with brick.

Raymond Fisher Requiem Offered

Funeral of Raymond F. Fisher, advertising representative of the Catholic Courier-Journal for the past 28 years, was held from the Boyce Funeral Home, 853 Culver Road and at St. Patrick Church, Rochester on Monday, Jan. 14.
