Owego Rosary, Altar Group Installs Mrs. Rutherford

Owego—Mrs. Mary Rutherford was installed as president of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Patrick Parish at a meeting last week. Mrs. Rutherford succeeds Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Quinn, who had served as president for more than two years, and who is moving to Norfolk, Va.

Her husband, James P. Quinn, formerly a local office manager of the Prudential Life Insurance Co., was transferred to Norfolk Jan. 1, as district manager.

Other officers installed at the meeting were Mrs. Elizabeth Riddle, vice-president; Mrs. Helen S. Goodrich, secretary; and Mrs. Mary Siam, treasurer.

The Rev. Bruce Ammering, moderator, installed the officers. Father Ammering introduced the Rev. William Thomas, assistant pastor of the Immaculate Conception parish, Ithaca, who spoke to the members.

Father Thomas urged the group to live their religion in their every day life, and not to be a Catholic just on Sundays. Father Thomas said that more converts are won, and a great deal more could be won by the example of

Registration For Diocesan Camp To Open In Rochester On Feb. 1

Registration of boys and girls for Camp Stella Maris will open Friday, Feb. 1, the camp office announced today. The 1957 season will mark the 31st year for the diocesan camp, which has grown to be one of the largest camps in central and western New York State.

With the remodeling of the largest cabin and the addition of a new cabin, Stella Maris is prepared to accommodate a capacity enrollment of 135 boys for two one-week and two two-week encampments and the same number of girls for a two week and a one week encampment.

Last summer, 774 boys and girls of elementary school age enjoyed camping at its best on Conesus Lake. Camp officials expect more than 800 children this summer.

SEMINARIANS are counselors for the boys with the ratio of one counselor for every six boys. Mr. Thomas Statt assisted by Mr. Larry Murphy directs the boys' staff. Catholic school teachers, Catholic college students and senior high school girls make up the girls' staff with Miss Joanne Blegler, director in 1955 and 1956 returning for her third season as director.

The Sisters of Mercy are beginning their 11th summer at camp where they are in charge of the kitchen and infirmary.

Since many requests are received from neighboring dioceses, Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, camp director and resident chaplain, urged parents in this diocese to apply now for registration cards.

As in the past years the total fee for two weeks. Of the total fee is $30.50 for one week and fee, the registration fee of $5 is

Frank Hultzman Rites Held, Oldest Industrial Worker

Corning—The funeral of Frank J. (Yank) Hultzman, recognized as the nation's oldest industrial worker, was held Tuesday, Jan. 15.

Following prayers at the A. W. Beilby and son funeral home, Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary Church by the Rev. James Malley, assistant pastor. The Rev. Thomas Brennan, pastor, was in charge of committal services in St. Mary Cemetery.

Mr. Hultzman, 92, of 33 W. Fourth St., died at Arnot-Ogden Hospital, Elmira, Saturday, Jan. 12, 1957.

In the sanctuary were the Rev. William Cannon, pastor, and the Rev. Gerald Dunn, assistant pastor, both of St. Patrick Parish. Bearers were: Joseph Spoor, Jack Hogan, Adrian Krebs, John O'Brien, John Graham and Jack Conroy.

ON DECEMBER 1, Mr. Hultzman, widely known as "Yank", was honored at the CGW annual employes' banquet for 80 years of continuous service with the company. He had been ill for a month before his death.

Mr. Hultzman was born in Corning on Aug. 18, 1864, the year before Lincoln's assassination, the son of Francis and Barbara Hultzman. He joined Corning Glass Works at the age of 12 as a helper in a "wine shop" which produced hand-made tumblers and goblets. Sixty years later when he retired at the age of 72, he held the record of longest active employment with the firm.

Among his early recollections was the str created when an associate of Thomas A. Edison visited the plant in 1879 to investigate production of a glass bubble for a radically new incandescent lamp.

THE CLIMAX of his association with CGW was reached Dec. 1, 1956 when he received his 80 year pin and a $5,000 check from the board of directors which was presented by Amory Houghton at the anniversary banquet at the Corning Glass Center. He missed only two such programs since they were inaugurated in 1929.

During last December's dinner, Mr. Hultzman was the recipient of a congratulatory letter from President Eisenhower and a few days prior to the dinner was the subject of a column by Hal Boyle, Associated Press writer, and a nationwide broadcast by Paul Harvey.

His younger brother Andrew Hultzman, who died in December 1955, would have received his 75 year pin last December. His son Francis L. Hultzman is a 56-year employe.

A life-long resident of Corning, Mr. Hultzman was a member of St. Mary Church and its Holy Name Society.

Surviving are: a son, Francis, a daughter, Mrs. Etha Sullivan of West Fourth Street, where he made his home; 10 grandchildren; 17 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Notre Dame High Notes

By ANN DE MEMBER and BOB LEVANDUSKI

Catholic Mission Crusade Unit of Elmira Notre Dame High School held its monthly general meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 16. The main topic of discussion was Mission Day, which is being planned for March 1. It was announced that each homeroom will compete to see who will bring in the most money on this day. The winning homeroom will then be treated to a pizza and pop party.

ON THE AGENDA for February will be a jig saw puzzle contest also sponsored by the CSMC.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 27, is the date set for the annual Ushers Club Banquet. The banquet will be held at Muscio's Restaurant.

THE DRAMATICS CLUB will sponsor a dance Saturday night, Jan. 26. "The Mid-Term Mixer." A special feature of the evening will be a floor show presented by students eager to become members of the club. Those presenting the entertaining performances will automatically become members.

PRACTICE is well underway for the Senior Class presentation "Love Is Eternal." This is a dramatization of the life of Mary Todd Lincoln. It will be presented in Notre Dame's auditorium on Feb. 9 at both matinee and evening performances.

Auburn Senator Supports Higher Legal Drinking Age

Albany, N.Y.—(RNS)—A bill to raise the legal drinking age in New York state from 18 to 21 was introduced in the legislature by Sen. George R. Metcalf, Republican of Auburn.

The Senator thus aligned himself with the State Council of Churches and against a special study committee named by Governor Averill Harriman. The council favors the higher age limit. The governor's committee recommended no change in the present 18-year limit.

Similar moves in recent years to raise the minimum age for legal purchase of liquor have failed.

THE GOVERNOR'S committee favored keeping the present rule on the grounds it was a kind of control proved by long experience "to be practical, workable and generally advantageous."

The governor has taken no stand on the issue. He accepted the report with a promise to give it "careful consideration."

Students Ask Ban On Obscene Books

Waterbury, Conn.—(RNS)—The majority of Waterbury's 5,500 high school students believe something should be done to stop the sale of obscene literature in the city.

Their views were expressed in a survey conducted by the Catholic Youth Organization of Immaculate Conception church.

A total of 4,454 students in the city's five high schools answered the questionnaires circulated in their schools. Seventy per cent of the students reported they knew where obscene books, magazines and pictures could be purchased and 77 per cent claimed a "sizeable number of teenage boys and girls read them."

Supper, Meeting Planned By Carmel Ladies Club

Auburn—Carmel Ladies Club will hold a covered dish supper Monday, in the school cafeteria. All members have been urged to attend the supper and meeting at which guests will be welcome.

Each lady attending is requested to bring a dish to pass, either a casserole, salad, or dessert. The committee in charge of the supper will furnish the meat.

Business to be transacted in the evening includes the scheduling of second semester projects, as well as the naming of committee chairmen and members.

The Rev. Brendan Hourihan, O. Carm. principal, and moderator, will speak.

Chico Knights Aid Church Youth Role

Youngstown, Ohio—(NC)—Knights of Columbus presented Bishop Emmett M. Walsh of Youngstown, with a check for $150,000 for youth work and any other use the bishop may decide.

The check was first of a planned series which will be given to five other bishops of Ohio.

The money was raised by Ohio Knights in a state-wide youth fund drive concluded early in December. The 1956 drive grossed nearly $750,000. Funds remaining after the presents to the bishops will be used for youth work in individual councils, and by the state organization.

Foreign Minister

Vatican City—(NC)—His Holiness Pope Pius XII received Charles Malik, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Lebanon, in a private audience here.
